Make Church a Part of Your Life

WEEKLY SERMONETTE

"Get Into God's Word"

By Pastor Lyn Linde, Norton First United Methodist Church

When you read God's Word are you reading it for pleasure or purpose? Do you take time to read it every day or just when you have spare time? Reading God's Word is the greatest book you can set your eyes upon. It is in this book that you will find answers for your life's faith journey. It takes wisdom and understanding to work through its pages.

The following statements reflect six points to consider when reading God's Word for maximum benefit. It matters not where you choose to begin reading, what matters most is that you read. My suggestion is to begin with the Gospel of John that you may know Christ's salvation. Choose a passage and then:

1. Read it over!
Paying attention to what gets your attention.

Go back and re-read that verse(s) multiple times, at times using different translations.

2. Think it through!
Grappling with why it got your attention. Being curious...asking questions...brainstorming thoughts...ideas...potential directions to go with it.

Don't spend lots of time here, just long enough to give you a place to start writing from.

3. Write it down!
I love the saying, "Thoughts tend to disentangle themselves when they pass through the lips and through the fingertips." This is the fingertips. Number five is the lips. HERE is the actual journaling piece. I am NOT trying to be a great literary! I am processing WHILE I am writing! Typically the first sentences and even paragraphs are ramblings! Very unclear... going nowhere in particular... but VERY consistently through the process SOMETHING begins to crystallize for me! Again, I don't try to get it ALL cleaned up and dusted off...I just want to see it...to taste it...to get my hands on it.

4. Pray it up!
This is my either verbal or written response to God... interaction with God about what is crystallizing. It could be giving thanks for what He showed me... or praising Him for what I now see about Him...or confessing my shortfall in not living what I now see... or asking for greater clarity on it...or asking for it to become a reality in my life.

5. Pass it on!
Much sweetness here, as I take that morsel and share it with my brothers and sisters. It is amazing how often it multiplies in the process as they interact with what they heard, adding their thoughts and asking clarifying questions regarding yours.

6. Live it out!
The Word of God comes to life when we apply it to our lives. Application releases the power that transforms your life and holds with it God's promised blessing on those who do!

OVER THE HURDLE

How amazing that an athlete can clear a high hurdle and land safely on the other side while running so fast! What is the secret to their success? There really is no secret; as with so many other seemingly impossible challenges in life, instruction, practice, belief, and a source of support are the tools of success that can catapult us to the highest of heights. At the very moment we feel the hurdle is most insurmountable we can call on God, our ultimate source of strength. Let us fortify our connection with Him at our house of worship. With Him by our side we can clear any hurdle and vault safely to the other side.
