Golf fundraiser set for June 1

The Rawlins County Hospital Foundation is excited for its 2nd Annual Fundraising Golf Tournament and Live Auction on Sunday, June 1.

Diane Sis, Rawlins County Hospital Foundation President, stated, "Rawlins County deserves quality healthcare right here at home. We are excited to have our 2nd Annual Golf Tournament and Live Auction, and hope it is as successful, if not more, than last year. We are paying out regular golf payouts and have included a drawing this year for a Ladies Cobra 14

Piece Golf Set, $100 Cash, and a MoJo Gift Basket."

You can pre-register a team or individually at the Atwood Country Club, Rawlins County Health Center, or on the day of the tournament. Tickets for the drawing can be purchased at the RCHC Front Office, or from Foundation Board Members.

"Local businesses, volunteers and foundation board members have come together to make this wonderful event possible for our local hospital, added Sis.

Registration begins at 8 a.m. The 4-Person Scramble shotgun start is at 9 a.m. The Live Auction and Supper will follow after the tournament. Some Live Auction items include: .223 AR-15 Rifle, Henry Golden Boy, 76 Acres of Crop Application Spraying (no chemicals), and 25 Prg Checks.

For questions concerning the Golf Tournament and Live Auction, to contribute to the Rawlins County Health Center's Capital Campaign or for memorial donations, please contact the Rawlins County Hospital Foundation office at 785-626-3211 ext. 220.

HANSEN MUSEUM

How many of you have been flipping through the channels on the television and happened to come across the "Joy of Painting with Bob Ross" program. If you stopped for only a moment, you would have been captivated by the simple and easy method of his painting techniques. We will again have two certified instructors that teach classes at the Hansen Museum on a regular basis. T.R. Mathews and Sandy Seamone, Arriba, Colo., will be here to entertain and instruct, step by step, revealing how easy and fun it is to paint the Bob Ross way. No previous experience is necessary and anyone can do it. On Saturday, June 7, the class will be painting "This Old Barn" and on Sunday, June 8, "Looking Glass Falls." The classes will run 9 a.m.-noon and 1-3 p.m. both days.

This fabulous learning opportunity is brought to you through the Hansen Museum Continued Education Program and offered to the public at a reduced rate. For more information call 785-689-4846 or go to our web at www.hansenmuseum.org. All you need to bring is a roll of paper towels, all other supplies are provided.

Things you need to know:

- Mother's Day is this Sunday!
- Look before you walk!
- Put the seat down!
