4-H Club installs new officers

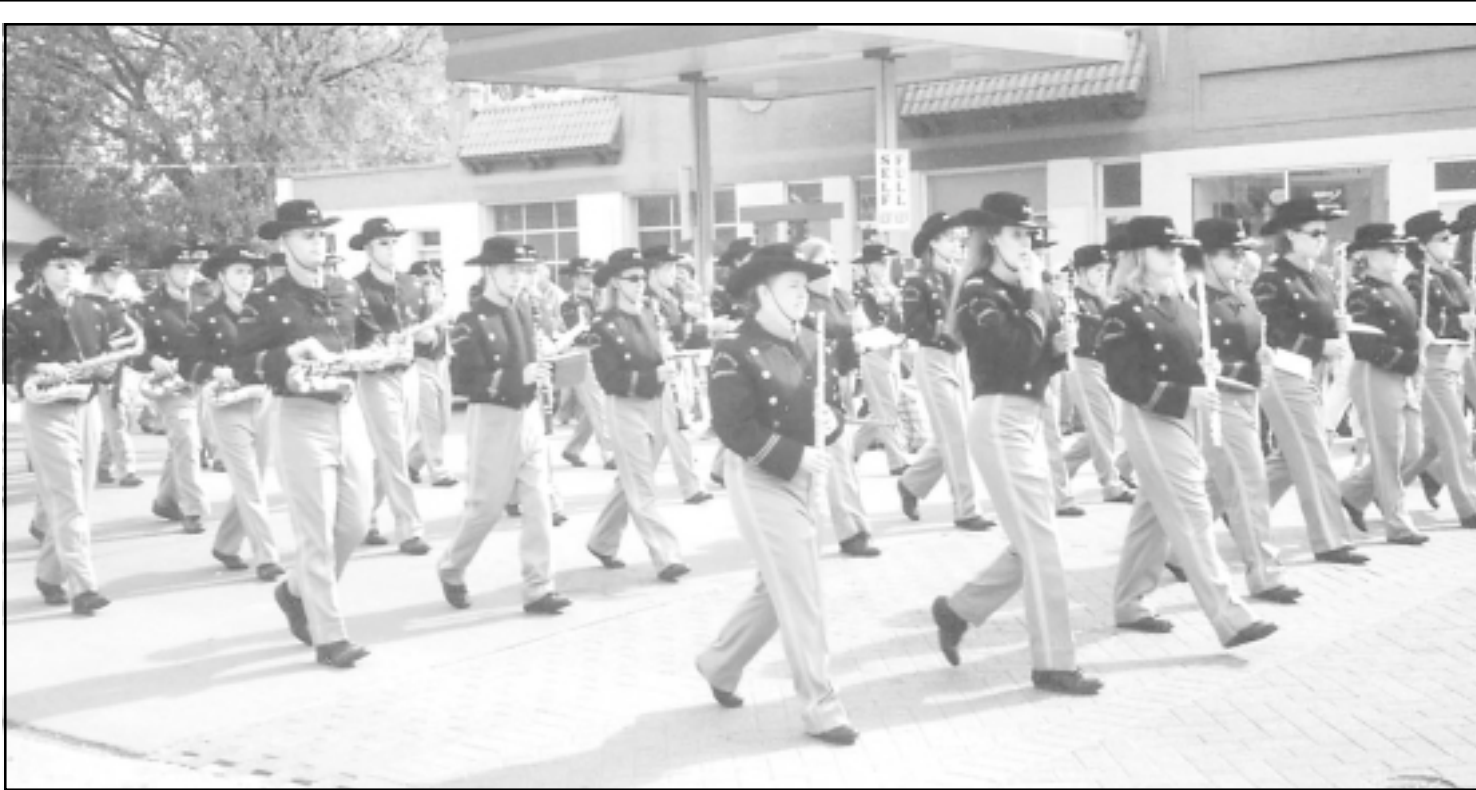

By TIMOTHY BECKER, Reporter
The monthly meeting of the Busy Jayhawkers 4-H Club was held Oct. 19 at Elmwood Park. The installation of new officers was held. They are: President, Keesha Holste; Vice-President, Joshua VanSlike; Secretary, Austin Brown; and Treasurer, Annette Becker. After the meeting was adjourned, club members took a hayrack ride to the Gilgenbach farm. There, they had a bonfire and roasted hot dogs and made s'mores. They played football and watched Jacob VanSlike shoot off rockets that were part of his 4-H project. An upcoming county-wide 4-H event is the benefit meal at the Armory on Nov. 15 to raise money to send representatives to the Denver Stock Show. The next meeting for the Busy Jayhawkers will be Nov. 16 at the 4-H Building.

CORRECTIONS

In the Oct. 24 edition of The Norton Telegram, the names of Marvin and June Harbers, Wilmer and Marie Hogan and Warren and Hazel Sidman were inadvertently omitted from the list of those attending the community carry-in dinner on Oct. 15 at the Prairie View Senior Center. The mistake was an editing error. In the Oct. 29 edition of The Norton Telegram, John Flynn, featured speaker at the annual Kansas

Quilters Organization fall meeting was pictured. He was identified as taking notes, when he was actually signing autographs. The mistake was a reporting error. The Norton Telegram will correct or clarify anything that is wrong in a news story. Call our office at 877-3361 to report errors. We believe news stories should be fair and factual, and want you to tell us about any failure to live up to this standard.
