PRAIRIE VIEW

By VIVIAN JANSONIUS

The Prairie Homemaker's Family and Community Education unit met Oct. 27 in the Prairie View Senior Citizen/Community Center. President Belinda Thalheim gave a reading, "Surrender To The Fact That There Is Always Something To Do". Twelve members were present and door prizes were won by LaVon Kats and Mrs. Thalheim. Members decided to renew the subscription to the Ranger magazine for the Long Island Library. Business of the day included electing new officers for next year. Anissa Kats is the new president; Judy Van Der Veen is the vice-president; Vivian Jansonius stays on as secretary; and Belva Leydig renews as treasurer. Secret Pal gifts were presented to Pat Hammond, Beth Schemper, Vivian Jansonius, Judy Van Der Veen and Anissa Kats. Others present were Julia Schemper and daughter Isabelle, Beth Ponstein, Diana Greving, Linda Hultgren, Bev Schemper, and Wanda Schemper. The next meeting will be Nov. 24 at Long Island with Annette Overlease of Norton Greenhouse as the speaker. The Phillipsburg Blood Drive will be held from noon to 6 p.m., Thursday, Nov. 13 in the Community Church of God. Contact Vivian Jansonius if you can donate blood.

Anita De Boer of Phillipsburg took her mother, Vivian Jansonius, to Hays Oct. 30. While there they saw Jerol and Jennifer De Boer, Kelsee and Taylor; Mark and Lisa Grieve, Kaiden and Morgan and Keith and Lori Bogart, Kali and Alex, all of Hays. Mrs. Jansonius attended the High Plains Mental Health meeting.
 Congratulations go to Brady Tien and Jordan Girard for their win in the Western Kansas Football League Tournament Oct. 26 in Hays. The boys play for the 5th grade Norton Junior Jays. The Junior Jays won their first game of the weekend on Saturday against Phillipsburg with a score of 33-12. They returned to Lewis Field to play in a nail-biting game against the Hays Falcons. That game ended in triple overtime with the Junior Jays coming out on top with a score of 19-13. This ended the year for the boys with a record of 9 wins and no losses. The team brought home a trophy that is over six feet tall. Quite a triumph for the team who had the smallest boys in the league.

Gene and Dawn Michelson, missionaries from Mali, are here visiting the Luctor Christian Reformed Church. They are staying at the home of Dick and Ila DeWitt.

ALMENA NEWS

By ESTHER MARBLE

We lost several friends this last week and our sympathy goes out to their families. Those who died were Opal Graham in California, Neil Reeves and Glen Ross of Almena and the grandson of Gene and Jan Gutzman, Cole Gutzman of Bennington.

Margaret McElroy came Sunday to stay a few days with her mother, Carrie Malcolm.

Kim Frickey called me from California last Thursday afternoon. She said she was in an area where the fires were and they just wait until they tell them to evacuate and they get out until it is safe to go back. I baby-sat Kim when she was a little girl and she lived there with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Frickey. Kim asked about the other children I baby-sat then, Justin Campbell, Jennifer,

Jared and Wayne Davis and Nathan Bartley. She said she is selling cars.

LYLE NEWS

By HELEN HELM

Some Lyle residents were in Norcatour for flu shots given by the health department. We appreciate them coming to Norcatour.
 Joyce and Yvonne Sumner drove to Kearney Saturday to visit Marguerite Fullerton at the Good Samaritan Hospital. Kathy Brashears, Curtis, Neb., called her parents, John and Helen Helm, Wednesday to let them know she had visited Mrs. Fullerton Tuesday evening. They report that she is working very hard to get her mobility back.
