Card of Thanks

IT IS DIFFICULT to tell you how grateful I am to many people who through the past few months have been so helpful for both Neil and I during his lengthy illness and since his death. To Pastor Kathy for her prayers, love, and concern and visits, to Hospice for all they did for us, to the doctors, nurses for their care, to my family and many wonderful friends for prayers, cards, visits, phone calls, for the food that was brought to our home, for all the memorials sent in Neil's memory, to the ladies who served the dinner at the church, the Masons for the memorial ceremony and numerous other things. It is so nice to live in a small town like Alma where people care. Thanks to everyone for their love and concern. May God Bless all of you. Grace Reeves and family
