Thirty-three young golfers attended the Northwest Junior Golf Tournament held in St. Francis on Monday. The season is winding down and this is the final area tournament before the regional event to be held Monday in Russell.

Kyla Bandel is the only qualifying St. Francis golfer planning to attend the meet in Russell. She has placed in several tournaments this season. She is also the only St. Francis golfer who has attended a number of Monday tournaments.

"The tournament today went well," Coach George Banister said. "I really appreciate the St. Francis kids that played, especially Brady Dinkel, who is only 6-years-old. We had competition with harvest still going on and also a football camp in St. Francis."

Thresher Queen selected

The Tri-State Antique Engine and Thresher Show, held in Bird City, is just weeks away and the new mystery Thresher Queen has been selected. Her identity will not be revealed until noon on Thursday, July 30, in front of the grandstand at the show.

The new queen was born in Nebraska and now lives in Cheyenne County. She grew up on a farm comprised of cattle, hogs, chickens and milk cows.

Cobs that she carried were used for the cook stove and heater. Later, she carried the ashes out.

Evenings were spent around the table with the kerosene-burning lamp furnishing light for studying, reading and playing games.

She remembers the Dust Bowl Days. Hard work, she said, was required of every family member which contributed to their way of life.

Are there any guesses on who

2009 Thresher Queen

the 2009 queen is? Check next week's Times and Herald for more clues.

Last year's queen was Mildred Wright. She will crown the new queen and her doll will go on display in the case of queens at the Eggers' Building on the show grounds.
