County craft shows coming

By Karen Krien
karen.k@nwkskans.com

There are two craft shows being held in the county — just in time for the holiday season. The first craft show will be held in Bird City on Saturday. The St. Francis craft show will be held the following Saturday.

The Bird City Craft Fair will be held at the American Legion Hall starting at 10 a.m. on Saturday. It is a good place to purchase holiday gifts and goodies. While there, plan on enjoying a lunch served by Tina Sager.

Barb Gerdes, coordinator, says most of the consignors are back for another year. There will be jewelry, baked goods, knitted and crocheted items to browse through and, in these tight economic times, it is a great show with something for everyone, including decorating ideas.

St. Francis Craft Show

The 14th annual Craft Show will be held Saturday, Nov. 7. The doors to the St. Francis Elementary School will open at 10 a.m. and the show will run until 3 p.m.

Coordinators Tammy Grice and Bonnie Zwegardt report the response has been outstanding and there are many of the same vendors as well as new vendors.

"The gym will be full and there will be tables in the hall."

Some of the items include wood items, jewelry, candles, homemade salsa, dry dip mixes and meal makers, baked goods, Christmas items, herb mixes and plants, denim jackets and vests, children's cloth books and much more. There are also a number of non-profit organizations selling different items to raise money.

Throughout the day, there will be door prizes drawn.

Lunch served

The St. Francis high school cheerleaders will be serving a soup lunch including chili and cheesy potato soup and cinnamon rolls. Money raised will be used to buy new warmups.
