

Preschool children tell their wish for Christmas

The older group of children attending ABC Preschool, St. Francis, had told their teachers what they wanted for Christmas.

Jayce Landers wants a Madagascar game, new watch, stick horse and a real rope (five things, he said).

Allison Gilbert wants a horse.

Molly Gilliland wants a littlest pet shop.

Jordan Smull wants a new bike, new swim suit, new Tootsie Rolls and suckers for the farm.

Ellee Krien wants an American doll.

Bree Nichols wants a new kitchen, plates, plastic bowls, dry erase board and markers, new permanent markers, markers, play food and some rings.

Matthew Berens wants a four-wheeler.

Bradyen Kaup wants a monkey, jack rabbit and a shot gun.

Preston Witzel wants a transformer set and crayons.

Ben Busse wants an orange dirt bike and a guitar.

Jesslynn Houtman wants a new Barbie, Barbie camper and a toy train.

We hope that the coming year is exceptional in every way!
