Cougars play at home

Cheylin 52, St. Francis 71
The Cougars hosted the St. Francis Indians in a home game on Wednesday, Feb. 14, from the postponed Tuesday Feb. 13 games. Cheylin cancelled classes on Tuesday due to road conditions. The McDonald area received 7-10 inches of snow on Monday when the surrounding areas only received about two inches. High winds on Monday night made roads very hazardous.

Not only did the Cougars hit the court on Wednesday evening, but it was also Senior Parent Appreciation Night. The Cheylin Dance Team performed, and the High School Cheer Squad performed a dance routine outfitted in red, white, and pink in honor of Valentines Day.

The first quarter of the game was neck and neck, then the Indians slowly pulled ahead and the Lady Cougars just couldn't get caught up. High scorers; Aubrey Kehlbeck 26, Tia Sager 12, Colleen Shrader 8, Jessica Marshall 4, and Alexis Weishapl 2.

Leading Rebounds; Kehlbeck 11, Sager 6, Marshall 5, Shrader 3, and Tasha Gordon, Emily Holub, Ana Ponce, and Mindy Antholz each had 1.

On Friday, Feb. 16 the Lady Cougars took it on the road to Rexford to go up against the Golden Plains Bulldogs.

Leading scorers; Kehlbeck 15, Antholz 10, Sager 6, Blanca Ponce 4.

Leading rebounds; Kehlbeck 12, Sager 6, Marshall 4, Antholz 3, Shrader, and B. Ponce each had 2.

Cheylin 34, Tribune 67
The Lady Cougars began regional play with a trip to Tribune on Monday to go up against the Jackrabbits. The Cougar men will travel to Brewster on Tuesday night.

The Cougars just had a hard game with the Jackrabbits keeping a healthy lead throughout the game.

Leading scorers; Kehlbeck 20, Sager 7, Antholz 3, Gordon and Shrader each with 2.

Leading rebounds; Kehlbeck 10, Shrader 4, Marshall 2, Gordon, Naomi Reeh, Antholz, and Sager all had 1.

Paul and Edna Roesener. The occasion was to help Paul celebrate his 90th birthday as the snow storm keep them from coming to join all the other family on Monday, Feb. 12.
