

Kindergarten students graduate

Twenty-eight St. Francis kindergarten students graduated on Friday.

After putting on their robes, each child stood so his collar and hat could be put on (at the last minute). After all, keeping those hats from tipping or even falling off is difficult when there is so much excitement.

The theme this year was "Happiness is... Kindergarten."

Their program consisted of songs and telling what made them happy in kindergarten.

There was a video presentation which was followed by refreshments.

Those graduating from kindergarten were Jessica confer, Madison Faylor, Wyatt Hilt, Draven Houtman, Lauren Johnson, Lindsey Johnson, KC Krien, Teagan Landenberger, Abbi Miller, Andy Miller, Jorge Olivares, Layne Pettijohn, Alex Queen, Steven Schorzman, Shalyn Zwegardt, Cody Baxter, Taylor Bexley, Aaron Blair, Emmanuel Fierro, Chandler Hamilton, Brice Hays, Kaleb Hays, Connor Keller, Timmy Lambert, Kouper McQuigg, Tiernan Poling, Mason Schmid and Shelby Wolff.

I Am A Country Newspaper ...

I am a country newspaper. I am the friend of the family, the bringer of tidings from other friends; I speak to the home in the evening of summer's vine-clad porch or the glow of the winter's lamp. I help to make this evening hour; I record the great and the small, the varied acts of the days and weeks that go to make up life. I am for and of the home; I follow those who leave humble beginnings; whether they go to greatness or to the gutter, I take to them the thrill of old days, with wholesome messages. I speak the language of the common man; my words are fitted to his understanding. My congregation is larger than that of any church in my town; my readers are more than those in the school. Young and old alike find in me stimulation, solace, comfort. I am the chronicler of man's existence. I am the word of the week, the history of the year, the record of my community in the archives of state and nation. I am the lives of my readers. I am the country newspaper.
