On May 7, Developmental Services of Northwest Kansas paid special recognition to two founding board members, Bonnie Burr and Clarence Scheopner. Burr and Scheopner were presented with plaques that will hang in Developmental Services Staff Training Rooms in Hays. The plaques will be displayed in the rooms as part of the Service's efforts in renaming them the Burr and Scheopner Training Rooms.

Both have served on the Board of Directors since 1973. Burr has served as the representative for Cheyenne County where she was instrumental in the early efforts of getting special education started west of Salina.

Scheopner as a representative of Sherman County was a pioneer in seeing that services were available to people with disabilities in northwest Kansas through his efforts in starting Beamgard Learning Center and Prairie Developmental Center in Atwood.

"These are two great leaders in the state of Kansas who, through their courage and determination, have touched the lives of thousands," Jim Blume, former Developmental Services President said. "Their personal connection and long standing dedication has created and ensured greater opportunities for people with developmental disabilities in northwest Kansas."

The Lions Club meeting, held at 6:30 p.m. on Monday, May 14, at the Windmill Restaurant, was opened by President Clarence Iliff. There were 16 members and two guests present.

The meeting opened with the Pledge of Allegiance and Norman Morrow gave the invocation. The attendance drawing was won by Francis O'Leary.

Following the meal, several items of business were dealt with including minutes by Betty Lampe and a financial report by Dorothy Kellner.

Elmer Kellner introduced his guests, Jacob Riedel. He told about working on an Eagle project, which is making a metal canopy around the kiddie pool. He needs $258 to complete the project. Mr. O'Leary made, and the members passed, a motion to donate $100 for the fund. The extra money received will be sent to the Greensburg disaster fund.

Reports were given by Milton Lampe and Elmer Kellner. Mr. Lampe suggested members read the Lions Magazine for ways to recruit members, and Mr. Kellner suggested the club set aside $500 for the remainder of 2006-07, and $500 for the 2007-08 fiscal years for Sight First II Campaign to be matched dollar for dollar by individual and community contributions. He also reported on Join Hands Day, which will be held May 19 and 31.

Mr. Iliff suggested members get the Sight Bus in conjunction with the Cheyenne County Car Show next year. Mr. Lampe was appointed to check with the bus driver to see if it would be available at this time.

Mr. Kellner introduced his guest, Terry Miller. He reported on the mailing lists they make and sell at the courthouse. Money received is donated to the local Lions Club to buy wheelchairs. He presented a check to the club for $700 and suggested if the club has extra money, they need crutches from 5 feet, 4 inches to 6 feet, 6 inches and shower seats.

There was a discussion about donating money for the Greensburg disaster fund. Mr. O'Leary made a motion and it was seconded by Mr. Lampe to send $500 for the fund. The motion carried.

Dale Patton reported on the Birthday Calendar project. He and Deb need orders turned in by the deadline, July 1. This year there will be a $25 reward for the best photo for the calendar. It needs to be a 3 1/2 by 7 horizontal picture. It will be voted on at the July meeting. There was discussion about not duplicating names for the calendar and what should be done to avoid this.

A meeting was adjourned. The next meeting will be held June 11.

Mother's Day breakfast and dinner guests in the Forsythe home were Joe and Dixie Kliessen, Reegan, Taige and Jarrett of Wright, Trevor Henderson of Goodland, Amelia Henderson and Ron and Bernice Wiecek and Chaisley of St. Francis.

Wilma Lampe was a guest of her daughter, Linda Gutsch, in Denver, Friday to Monday of last week. They enjoyed the performance of "The Taffatas" at the Denver Center For The Performing Arts and also a special "Tea" at the Brown Palace Hotel.

On Sunday they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Lance Gutsch and Gatsby and Leah Gutsch and Mike Lehrburger at the Botanical Gardens for Mother's Day brunch with entertainment on the outdoor stage.

Wilma returned home Monday evening.
