Alumni reunion was big success

Downtown parking spaces on Porter Avenue and surrounding area were filled, especially on Sunday. It was estimated at least 200 former graduates of Haigler High School, having come from various distances, congregated at the Legion Hall on Saturday and Sunday.

A handcuffing "arrest" of the Collicott sisters occurred on Sunday after the potluck lunch. About $2,500 in bail has been raised toward releasing them from the jail sentence. The amount of $500 is still needed to prevent them from having to spend a night in the jail next week.

Tax deductible donations, payable to Save School 67 South, can be sent to P.O. Box 144, Haigler, NE 69030.

Violet Workman has been enjoying a visit from her daughter, Pearlina Gillett, from Nevada. Violet will be accompanying her daughter back to her home in Nevada sometime in June.

Ray and Floy Ruggles visited Mary Cox at Cedardale Health Care Center Wednesday morning, May 23. Mary had recently broken her right ankle and is very weak but still expresses hope in being able to go home sometime in the future. She appreciates visitors.

Bible school

Haigler Community Vacation Bible School begins June 4 and continues through June 8 from 8:30 to noon. Bring a sack lunch. Also invite friends to attend with you. The community is welcome to attend the closing program on Friday, June 8, at 1 p.m. For more information contact Carol Peterson (297-3459) or Kris Jardine (297-3346.)

Sophia Zuege was nicely surprised over the week-end with a visit from two of her nieces, Sylvia Bliss from Cabool, Mo., and Janet Wilcox, of Tribune. Sunday visitors at the Stan and Lois Zuege home were: Dorothy Walker and Ilene Walker; Hazel Chambers and Larry and Diane Sack. Helen and Earl Unger, son, Wesley with his friend, Dennis came from Colorado Springs. Doris Weaver and daughter, Irma Sue with husband, Frankie drove from Calhan. From Wray were Idell Zuege and daughter, Vernetta Gorman. Jeremy Zuege, Clarissa, Shade and Steven came from Firestone.

A picnic dinner hosted by Mel and Norma Fisher was enjoyed at Mel's Ranch, south of Laird by Leah and Dwight Brewer of Tucson, Ariz., Sherri Gregory from Lincoln and Ray and Floy Ruggles of Haigler. Nikki, the border collie, assisted in entertaining the guests.

Sherri Gregory, The Blog Lady, was a Monday morning visitor of Floy and Ray Ruggles. She had been visiting her sister and brother-in-law, Leah and Dwight Brewer at their part-time home in St. Francis since Wednesday of last week. Sherri attended the alumni celebrations, meeting many friends from her "growing up" years in the South Haigler, Kan., area. She took many pictures that will be appearing on the Haigler Blog in coming days and weeks. She returned to her home, near Lincoln, Monday afternoon.
