Swim team competes in Burlington

The Sharks went to Burlington, Colo., for the second meet of the season.

"Our swimmers have been working on their strokes this week and it really paid off," Coach Margaret Poling said.

"It was hard to pick an outstanding swimmer this week so I picked three.

"Kylie Sherlock took over 7 seconds off her best times.

"Brianna Cooks received three third-place medals and two second-place medals.

"Taylor Spike tremendously improved her freestyle stroke.

"We has several swimmers compete in their first race and they did great. Our relay teams were all outstanding. Our one downfall comes in the 13-14 age group where we only have three swimmers and we need four.

"We go to Oberlin for our next meet - it will be their first meet in five years.

"Come watch the Sharks compete."
