St. Francis News

Erna Schlepp of the Hester Home in Benkelmen, Neb., enjoyed spending time at her apartment in St. Francis over the weekend.

Saturday, after having lunch with Jack and Sheila Davis of Denver, Erna enjoyed a visit from her brother Raymond Zimbelman. Other afternoon visitors included Kenneth and Suzie Zimbelman of Ozark, Mo., Rueben and Valjean Schultz, Carl and Connie Williams and Ernie and Marlene Lebfrom.

Erna returned to her apartment again on Sunday to have lunch with Jack and Sheila. Afternoon visitors included Helen Peter and Carl and Connie Williams.

Betty Jean Winston enjoyed visiting her children and four of her grandchildren last week.

She traveled to Overland Park on Wednesday to see Shawn and Leigh Legere, Chase and Miles. While there she attended a baseball doubleheader in which Chase's team, the Blue Valley West Senior Legion Jaguars, defeated the Shawnee Mission Slams 10-4 and 5-2. Chase had two hits and three runs batted in in the first game where he was the catcher and one hit, a sacrifice fly and three runs batted in in the second game where he played left field. Blue Valley West won the 6A baseball championship this spring.

She watched Miles in the Athletics soccer team action on Friday evening. A trip to Clinton Lake gave her the opportunity to see the family wake boarding, wake surfing, slalom and tubing.

Father's Day was spent in Ellsworth with the Dan Winston family where a combined Father's Day/birthday luncheon was enjoyed on Sunday. Jean and J.J. are busy working and enjoying their summer.

Colby Community College

Hannah Louderbaugh of McDonald and Grace Hnizdil of St. Francis are among the 78 students who earned their place on Colby Community College spring semester honor rolls. The president's honor roll lists 41 students, while the dean's honor roll lists 37 more.

To earn a place on one of the honor rolls, students must earn 15 or more credit hours and have no failing grades. The dean's honor roll includes students with grade point averages of 3.75 through 3.99, while the president's honor roll includes only students with a perfect 4.0 grade point average.

Both Louderbaugh and Hnizdil were named to the president's honor roll.

Fort Hays State University

Amber Feikert was among the 37 graduating seniors at Fort Hays State University, who has been recognized as 2007 Torch Award nominees.

Class of 1957 enjoys alumni weekend

The class of 1957 had a great turnout for the 50th class reunion. Of the 34 living members of the class, there were 25 present.

They all seemed to enjoy the get together on Friday evening which involved a meal, visiting and checking out all of those high school and grade school pictures.

Saturday was coffee and rolls and then many from the class boarded a school bus for a trip to the breaks with Tobe Zwegard narrating the tour. After the tour, the group had lunch and carried on with the visiting.

Saturday evening was spent at the Alumni Association Banquet where the class was honored with a park bench denoting that they were the class that started the Alumni Organization.

Sunday morning the class attended, along with the class of 1952, a worship and memorial service for the classmates who had died. This service was held at the Ye Ole Country Church next to the museum.

Club Clip

Lawn Ridge 4-H Club

The Lawn Ridge 4-H Club held the June meeting on June 11 at the clubhouse. Taylor led members in the flag salute and Valerie led in singing "10 Little Indian Boys."

Roll call was answered by "how many days are in the summer season?" by 12 members and two leaders. The minutes were read and the treasurer's report was given. Heidi gave the 4-H Council report, Kattie gave the Junior Leaders report and Christy gave the leaders' report.

The Tour Committee gave details about the tour next month and Ericka gave details about the Relay for Life.

Under new business, it was deecided to sell window paints again this year to promote the fair. Christy will have packets ready next week so we can get started on this project.

Tristan gave a project talk on his rabbits, Valerie gave a project talk on shooting sports, Heidi gave a demonstration on making pockets for the refrigerator and Kattie talked about a program. In Their shoes, she did at Discovery Days.

The members had a relay for recreation. Announcements were read and Travis led in the 4-H Pledge. Meeting was adjourned.

The Wurm family provided treats.
