Historical Society plans presentation

There will be a presentation on July 10 on Cheyenne County and the Works Progress Administration (WPA). This is sponsored by the Cheyenne County Historical Society. The city hall in Bird City will be open for touring between 7 and 7:25 p.m. The city hall was made possible by the Administration project. Following the city hall tour, a presentation will take place at the shelter house in the Van Doren park, another works project. Stan Dorsch will share what he has discovered about other projects in the area.

Mr. Dorsch will be giving the presentation and there will be a guest appearance by Uncle Skinny, a worker from the Works administration project in Bird City.

Following the presentation those attending may take a walk in the park and see the many improvements. The Van Doren Park was another project.

A business meeting will follow Mr. Dorsch's talk.
