Starlighters 4-H

The July 2 meeting of the Idalia Starlighters 4-H Club was called to order by President Creighton Farness. The pledge of allegiance was led by Regan Shaffer and the 4-H pledge was led by Matthew Paul. Minutes from the previous meeting were read by Matthew Paul. The leader's report reminded al members that record books for livestock are due July 27 and project record books are due August 2 and should be taken with you when you interview for your project. Members were all asked to sign up for a shift working the food booth on Sunday, August 5. The members moved to go night swimming in Wray instead of to WaterWorld because of schedule conflicts. The club will provide pizza and drinks for everyone. Members were asked to make a family poster to share before the swim trip. The Parker family provided poster supplies. Refreshments were served by the Paul family. Demonstrations were given by Riley Shaffer, Stephanie Helling, Eric Drohan, Jennay Terrell, Marc Drohan and Julie Drohan.
