Tourney planned Monday

By Betty Jean Winston

The Riverside junior golf program is moving along with the last tournament of the regular season to take place at Riverside on Monday. Although several of the Sainty golfers have attended out-of-town tourneys, this is the one that most of them chose to participate in.

Monday would be a great time for area residents to see the improvements the golfers have made during their Friday practice sessions.

All golfers who place in the top three in their age division will be eligible to advance to the Regional tournament later in July.

A putting contest was held during the practice session on Friday, June 29. Cade Bracelin was the overall winner of all age groups with a 70.

On Monday, Aug. 2, Isaac Sturgeon attended an area tournament for the first time. He competed in the boys 12/13 age group.

Kyla Bandel placed first at the tournament held on Monday at Oakley.

Coach George Banister reported that she not only won the girls 8/9 age division with her 55 but she also had less strokes than the winner of the girls 10/11 division. When compared to the boys 8/9 division, Kyla would have placed second.

"She had a really good day," he said.

Friday morning's practice session will be the final time to get ready for the Sainty tournament on Monday so many golfers are expected to attend.

Six swimmers in the top 10 in league

"The two-day league meet was extremely successful," said Margaret Poling, swim team coach. "Huge chunks of time were cut from various swimmers. The most improvements were times by Alex Queen and Katie Schmid. Overall the team shaved 142 seconds off of various strokes — it was great."

At the end of the meet "high-point awards" were given to those swimmers who scored placement points for their teams all year.

- Receiving fourth place in the boys 15/18 age group was Corbin Sherlock.

- Receiving sixth place in the boys 15/18 age group was Gavin Smull.

- Other swimmers who were in the top 10 were Brianna Cooks, Trevor Reed, Amber Smull and Mandi Cooks.

"More swimmers participate in the league meet than any other meet and they each can swim in five individual events and two relays," Coach Poling said. "Therefore it is harder to place at the league meet."

Sainty Shark awards were presented to swimmers on Friday night at the barbecue. Some of those awards included:

- Rookie of the year: Keegan Sherlock.

Coach Poling and Crissy Cooks, assistant, said they appreciated the efforts of the swimmers and all the parents who helped all year; also the parents who helped at the two-day league meet and the camp out with loading, cooking, putting up and tearing down tents.

Something More

By Janet Daily

Life in Glory, Wyoming, population 51, isn't exactly exciting. The dusty old town isn't even on the map. And for rancher Luke McCallister, that's fine. Broken by tragedy, the stoic cowboy spends his time at his Ten Bar Ranch or down at Ima Jane's Rimrock Bar trying to avoid the gossip being served along with the food and drink. But the everyday quiet of his life is shattered when he finds a human skull — possibly the key to Glory's oldest mystery.

It was one hundred years ago that a band of outlaws were said to have buried their gold in Glory. The one surviving bandit took the secret of the treasure's hiding place with him to the gallows. Angie Sommers know the story cold: that man was her great-great-grandfather. She's come to Glory to see if the old legend of the gold is true, and she wants Luke to help her find it. She even has incentive: a possible clue written by the dead man himself.

Luke has no interest in chasing after pipe dreams. He's seen the damage too much hope can bring. Still, he can't deny that Angie makes him feel things he hasn't allowed himself to feel in years. Something about her sweet, trusting nature, her honest eyes, and unshakable belief makes him feel alive again — and that could be dangerous. For someone else is determined to stop Angie, someone who would do anything for the outlaws' gold. Now, bound by the thinnest of ties and shadowed by danger, Luke and Angie set off in search of a mystery as romantic as the west itself on a journey of faith that will take them into Wyoming's rugged, treacherous terrain and even deeper into the heart's tender graces....
