Bluegrass Breakdown

Haigler's 6th Annual Bluegrass Breakdown is Sunday, August 5, from noon to 6 p.m. mountain time at the Haigler Village Park. It will feature The Blue Canyon Boys; The McLemore Family; and The Bluegrass Sheiks.

Groundbreaking Ceremony

At 1 p.m. on the hot afternoon of Tuesday, July 17, a group of people gathered under the shade of a tree near the corner Noble Street and Porter Avenue in Haigler to take part in and observe a Groundbreaking Ceremony. This is the site where the old rural schoolhouse from District South 67 will be moved to later in the summer. Among the group were representatives from the Benkelman Post and McCook Gazette. Stan Carlock honored and expressed appreciation to all the individuals who had a part in helping with and supporting the project. Professional and amateur photographers were busy snapping pictures of the event.

Birthday open house

The weekend is almost here.

One of the important events to remember is the 80th birthday open house at the Golden Inn for Veda Douglass on Saturday, July 28, from 2 to 5 p.m. Her children would like you to come by and say "Hi."

After the groundbreaking ceremony for South 67 was held on July 17, Carol Flaming, Heather and Logan Klein, little Jaylyn Mekeburg and her sister Laney, all of Yuma, and MerryLu Simmons, of Wray, went to the home of Laura Pearl Wall for cake and ice cream in honor of Carol's birthday.

Laura Pearl Wall visited Saturday in the home of MerryLu Simmons.

Almeda Norris of Longmont spent the week, July 14 to 20, with her sister Delores Zuege. They had a good time together and spent some of that time visiting friends and relatives.

There was a July birthday celebration on a Sunday in Hudson, Colo., for Stan Zuege and his sister, Hazel Chandler. Among those attending were another sister, Dorothy Walker, Lois Zuege and Edith Roundtree and Diane and Larry Sack. Stan returned home Sunday afternoon while Lois and Edith continued on to Longmont to visit their mother and husband, Mercil and Frank Tiff. There, they enjoyed a reunion with their brother Larry and his son, Jason, from near Pasadena, Calif., brother Roger from Grand Junction, Colo., also another sister from Yampa, Idaho. Stan and Lois, son, Stanley Dale (Shorty), from Pagosa Springs, Colo., was also there. They spent the night in nearby motels, before returning to their homes.

Ray and Floy Ruggles attended the annual Trembly-Fisher reunion at Beecher Island for the noon potluck dinner on Saturday, July 21. Coming the longest distance to attend the reunion, which began at the Friday evening supper continuing through Sunday morning breakfast, was Randy Fisher and wife, Karen of Reno, Nev.
