

FAIR DAYS

It's over!!

The Cheyenne County Fair has come to a close and there are many photos. At the top, the demolition derby had lots of action with Matt Green winning the top prize. Clockwise, Carter Weber was enjoying the cars; Carla Schiltz was one of the people eating at the Knights of Columbus barbecue held on Saturday; the Lacy boys had the winning float in the Family Division; Travis Rogers listened carefully to what the judge was saying about his bird house construction.
