Members of the Cheyenne Shrine Club, St. Francis, are continually working in the community but, not every act and donation is always known. Recently, president Chris Bracelin sent out a note thanking the members for their help during the past year.

Among the things members helped with include:

- Sending a student to the Shrine Bowl Band Camp.
- Donating $400 to the American Cancer Society.
- Providing balloons to the children at the Cheyenne County Fair Parade.
- Paying the transportation and meals to the Shrine Circus in Salina for the sixth graders in the St. Francis and Cheylin Schools.

- Continued to support county events through the use of the Shrine Candy Wagon.
- Contributed $1,500 to the ISIS Temple's travel fund. This fund is used to transport a child and a parent to a Shrine hospital.
- Recently, the organization made another donation of $500 to the St. Francis Emergency Building project to help pay for the concrete approaches.

"Our goal is to support the communities as well as help out Shrine projects, especially the Shrine hospital," Mr. Bracelin said. "If there is a child from Cheyenne County who we can help through the Shrine hospital, please contact me or any Shriner."
