Thank You

Thank you to everyone for your thoughts, prayers, cards, food and flowers in our time of grief. Special thanks to Joann Tafoya for all your help. Thank you John and Natalie. The family of Nadine Workman

Mayetta, thank you for planning the card shower for my birthday. I received almost as many cards as I am years old. Wanda

We would like to thank all of our friends and family for the phone calls, visits, cards and fellowship following our mom and/or daughter's death. It's nice to know that we have so many to lean on for comfort during this difficult time. The family of Ann Wright, Tina Elliott, Rob Wright and Elsie Cook

We want to thank our friends for coming to help celebrate our birthdays. What a great afternoon! Bud and Dale

Our thanks to all of you who sent us your greetings on the occasion of our 60th wedding anniversary. It was truly a wonderful surprise (a special thanks to Lucille Price) to hear from so many who still live in or have ties to our home town. Hearing from you brought to mind cherished memories of the beginning of our life together. As one of the greeting cards we received said, "The roots of a family tree begin with the love of two hearts." We thank God for not just our many years together but for the friends and family who have watered and nurtured that family tree through the years. Thank you for making our celebration so rich. Marjorie and Robert Miller

Thank you to the many friends that remembered Bernard with gifts of food, flowers and memorials. We sincerely appreciated the service by Jeff Landers, the comforting guidance from John Knodel and also the fine meal from the Christian Church ladies. The family of Bernard Roelfs
