St. Francis and Hoxie met in junior high volleyball action on Thursday. The Saintry eighth grade A-team was defeated 10-25, 14-25 and the B-team 12-25.

"The girls played okay, but just didn't have enough 'good' plays to win the game," Coach Terri Orth said. "Hopefully having a week off will help them get back to the basics. And get them ready for Colby on Monday."

Scoring, A-team, game one: Caitlin Northrup 2, Kaitlin Figgins 1; game two: Northrup 6, Figgins 2, Ashlynn Lambert 1.

Scoring, B-team, Christina Schoenrogge 2, Lambert 2.

Seventh grade

The final scores in the seventh grade competition were 19-25, 14-25 in A-team action and the B-team split their games 15-25, 25-19.

"We did well starting out on these games and we are constantly improving on playing together as a team," Coach Tina Elliott said. "We just need to figure out how to keep our momentum and enthusiasm."

Scoring: A-team, good serves: Christina Harris 10, Jacquelyn Ketzner 5, Chloe Miller 2, Clarice

Neitzel 2, Taylor Archibald 2, Allyson Northrup 1, Tilyn Bell 1, Nariah Hamilton 1.

"We (B-team) did very well on these games and we won a game," Coach Elliott said. "The girls were so excited and now we realize that we do have the capability to win. I think winning really boosted our spirits and we are now looking at winning the game instead of just playing."

Scoring, B-team, good serves: Archibald 9, Bell 8, Katie Lambert 6, Sarah Whitmore 5, Hamilton 2, Aubrey Mills 2, Miller 2.

Scoring, B-team, good serves.

HOMECOMING WEEK students along with adults enjoy the many activities in honor of school spirit. Nothing was complete without the SFCHS cheerleaders cheering the crowd along.

Leone G. McDaniel

Aug. 18, 1917-Sept. 23, 2007

Leone McDaniel, 90 years, one month and five-days old, was born on Aug. 18, 1917, on a farm south of Wheeler, Kan. She died in Colorado Springs, Colo., at the home of her daughter, Sharon and husband Joe. She had been living with them for the past five years when she was diagnosed with colon cancer in June of this year.

Leone was the first born of four children to Nick and Merle Oster. Leone's family moved to a farm south of St. Francis where she began school and completed the eighth grade. In 1934, she was baptized and confirmed into the St. Paul Lutheran Church in St. Francis. After completing school, she worked for different families in the area as a housekeeper.

She as married to Claude McDaniel on Aug. 18, 1945, in Sharon Springs, Kan. They lived in Bird City, Kan. There, Claude worked as a farmer and she was a homemaker. From this union, a daughter, Sharon Kay, was born.

Leone was a long-time member at St. John Lutheran Church in Bird City and was very active in the church. She was available to assist in most functions that she was called to do. She was also a member of the American Legion in Bird City for many years.

Leone was active in the senior citizen center. She loved playing cards with all of her friends. Pinochle was her game of choice. She took much pride in being a good homemaker and especially enjoyed making homemade pies. Another of her favorite activities was traveling on the "Fun Bus" with other senior citizens. Leone received the nickname "Nonee" from all of her nieces and nephews, a name which has stayed with her all of these years.

Leone was preceded in death by her parents Nick and Merle Oster; husband, Claude McDaniel; two sisters, Carol Black of Bird City, and Doris Hahn of Denver.

She is survived by her daughter Sharon and husband Joe Pacheco, Colorado Springs; sister Ilone Ketter, St. Francis; grandson Brian Perkins and wife Susan, Colorado Springs; granddaughter Tina and husband Kasey Armstrong, Parker, Colo.; six grandchildren, Chris Dupont, Austin, Shandy and Amber Perkins, Haili and Taylre Armstrong; and many nieces and nephews.

Leone will be missed greatly by all her family and friends.

Funeral services were held on Sept. 27, 2007, at St. John Lutheran Church in Bird City with Pastor Charolette Strecker-Baseler officiating.

Pallbearers were Randy Johnson, Kevin Isaac, Dustin Gilliland, Shannon Ambroiser, Chris Dupont and Austin Perkins.

Leone will be buried next to her husband of 35 years in the Bird City Cemetery. Memorials may be made to the Leone McDaniel Memorial Fund.

Arrangements were by Knodel Funeral Home, St. Francis.

Nadine Eulalie Workman

May 25, 1934-Sept. 9, 2007

Nadine Eulalie (Wright) Workman, daughter of James Henry Wright and Jessie Mae (Schofield) Wright, was born May 25, 1934, 2 1/2 miles northeast of Bucklin, Ford County, Kan. She was the third of seven children.

Nadine attended school and graduated from the eighth grade at St. Francis, Kan. She didn't further her education as she was needed at home to help care for her younger siblings.

She married Charles Samuel Workman in St. Francis on July 18, 1954. The first few years of marriage, the couple lived in Haigler, Neb. While living in Haigler, two daughters, Phyllis and Charla, and one son, Steve, were born. During this time, Nadine was baptized and confirmed at Zion Lutheran Church in Haigler.

In 1959, Nadine and Charles moved south of Haigler to Charles' Father's homestead and it was then that son, Danny, was born.

Nadine spent the rest of her life on that farm. She enjoyed going to stock car races, going to various auctions and sales and especially enjoyed getting together with family for reunions, listening to her brothers sing and she loved to visit with everyone. She always enjoyed children and loved to tease and play jokes on and with children of all ages. After her own children were gone, she continued to take great pleasure in spending time and caring for her grandchildren and other children in the family.

Nadine endured many health problems in the last 20 years of her life but, even through the most serious illnesses, her wish was always to remain home with her husband. Her wishes were fulfilled due to the faithful and loving care of her husband, with the assistance of family and the Lord and angels who were asked to watch over her by her husband each day as he went about the day-to-day tasks on the farm.

Nadine died peacefully at the home she loved on Sept. 9, 2007, at the age of 73.

She was preceded in death by her parents; brother Wayne Wright; and sisters, Darline Welch and Letha Redden.

Survivors include her husband of 53 years, Charles, of the home; daughters, Phyllis and husband Roe Custer, and Charla Whomble and husband Dewie Whomble; sons, Steve and wife Tami Workman, and Danny and wife Cindy Workman, all of rural Cheyenne County. Her grandchildren are Jolene and Clint Custer, Dewie Dee Whomble and Angie (Whomble) Whittenberg; Beau, Tanya and Darren Workman, Michael Workman; and step grandchildren Annie, Curtis and Rochelle Dulany.

Also surviving her are 11 great-grandchildren and brothers, Keith Wright of Hutchinson, Leon Wright of Indianola, Neb., and David Wright of St. Francis, along with numerous relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held Sept. 13 at Zion Lutheran Church in Haigler with Rev. Chris Farmer officiating. Interment followed in the Haigler Cemetery.

Special activities held at school

Homecoming Week, held at the St. Francis Community High School from Sept. 10-15, special activities were held. The students had fun dressing up, being twins and celebrating "class day."

On Friday, during the crowning of the king and queen, the band played, there were cheers and talks from the coaches. At one point, the cheerleaders, with boxes of Dr. Pepper and Mountain Dew, handed out cans of soda to the Homecoming Spirit winners. Twin Day winners were Ted Crabtree and Justin Sherlock who were dressed in old basketball uniforms.

Those receiving soda for dressing up were: Ted Crabtree, Justin Sherlock, Chance Hobrock, Josh Carpenter, David Guthmiller, Gavin Smull, Keaton Frewen and Trevor Hilt.

Class Day found the freshmen dressed as nerds; sophomores as rock stars; juniors in 80's dress; and seniors in camouflage clothing.

Winners were: Corbin Sherlock, Jenice Hartman, Andrea Holzwarth, Scott Ford, Terrence Lamb, Kaycee Williams, Brooks Hobrock, Adam Guthmiller, Cody Sherlock and Aubree Schlepp.

Check the Homecoming Special Section inserted in this week's Saint Francis Herald and be sure and thank the sponsors who made it possible.

Congratulations!
