

Preschool kids visit the farm!!

The ABC Preschool students visited the farm of Barry and Sally Priest, northwest of St. Francis. It was like a petting zoo with children being able to pet and/or hold everything from goats to chickens. When they were ready to leave, each child was able to pick a pumpkin to take home.

Pictured top left — Stacy Kaup held the goat so Shadryon Blanka could pet it; clockwise, Kiefer Cooper showed off the pumpkin he had picked; Adam Krien had a good hold on a chicken; the look on Kattie Wurm's face indicated that she really wasn't interested in sharing the kitten with Briana Vandike, left, but Jesse Baxter was going to pet the kitten while she wasn't looking; Briana had picked her pumpkin and Brady Schoenrogge was checking his out.

Herald staff photos by Karen Krien