Haigler News

Visits family

Karen Harford flew out of Denver International Airport on Oct. 24 to Dayton, Ohio, to be with her son, Sean Mayo, his wife, Sarah and their children, Barrett and Gwen. She returned on Saturday, Nov. 3.

While in Dayton, Karen was able to participate in Gwen's first grade and Barrett's fourth grade fall school parties. The family enjoyed an outing to one of the country's largest corn mazes that is near Dayton. It was no easy task getting out of the maze, but good exercise since you ended up going in circles or having to back-track numerous times.

On the 31st she spent the evening with her niece, Nicole Howard, and her husband, Travis.

The last day was spent in Cincinnati at the museum seeing the sights of the National Geographic's world premier exhibit of "Real Pirates", the pirate ship, Whydah, which sank in 1717 off the coast of Cape Cod. They also went to the Children's Museum.

Haigler United Methodist-Women

The November United Methodist Women's meeting was called to order by President Sally Leinen at 2 p.m. Seven members and one guest were present.

The meeting opened by all reciting the Purpose, followed by Roll Call, "a Thanksgiving poem or message." Joy was expressed that Lillian Mahon was back again.

Laura Pearl Wall offered devotions, closing with a Thanksgiving prayer. A Corsage for Mission was presented to birthday celebrants and to the guest. Reports were given including Marilyn's treasurer's report given by Sally. A bill was approved for payment.

Sally gave the Response report entitled, "Blessed Are the Children." Myrna volunteered to give the December report. Correspondence was read and reviewed. Since the last meeting, there were 27 calls made and 32 cards and notes sent.

Sally and Debbie attended the Leadership Update at Imperial on Oct. 27, and reported on that. Phyllis requested a date for a meeting to make plans for the Bazaar and Dinner to be held on Dec. 1. The meeting was set for Nov. 19 at 1 p.m.

With no further business to discuss, Sally adjourned the regular meeting. Laura Pearl presented the World Thank Offering program, "Sustainers of Life." Virginia served as hostess.

The next meeting will be held on Friday, Dec. 7, at 2 p.m. Debbie Bush will present the Christmas program and roll call will be "a verse from a Christmas card." The officers will serve as hostesses.

Family reunion

The week of Oct. 29, was a special occasion for the children of Marvin and Harriet Carlock. All five siblings held a family reunion in Haigler. Stanley and LaNeta Carlock hosted the event, with the assistance of his brother and wife, Marv and Mary-Ann. Activities included a Monday evening formal dinner, a Tuesday session of genealogy and cemetery visits, decorating Halloween sugar cookies and an evening cookout, a Wednesday morning brunch, Halloween costumes and trick or treat night, and a gathering of some of the Haigler school classmates.

Attending were Stanley Carlock and wife, LaNeta of Haigler; Marv Carlock and wife, MaryAnn of Laird, Colorado; Cheryl (Carlock) Raile of Burwell, Neb.; Sandy (Carlock) Magley of Bird City; and Linda (Carlock) Miller of Arnett, Okla.

The sisters were all guests at the Carlock White House. Everyone very much enjoyed the reunion time.

this trip. Enroute to and from, they stopped to visit with their father, LaVoine Collicott at the Hillcrest Care Center in Wray.

Tuesday, Oct. 30, Sophie Zuege and Dode Faylor visited in the home of Lois and Stan Zuege. Lois had fallen on Monday, dislocating her shoulder and breaking her upper arm. Sophie and Dode worked up some apples for Lois for pies.

Wednesday, Oct. 31, Dode Faylor had lunch with Lillian and Norvin Anderson then spent the afternoon visiting with Lillian in the Anderson home.

Lyndsay Wall was the honoree at a bridal shower at First Congregational Church in McCook on Nov. 3. Her Grandmother Wall accompanied her aunts, MerryLu Simmons and Carol Flaming to McCook to attend the shower. Gracie Wall visited her grandmother late Saturday afternoon in time to make cookies.

This correspondent is extremely grateful for all of those who graciously submit news items for this, your column. An even wider participation would be heartily welcomed. Call 297-3605; e-mail <mailto:ffisher@bwtelcom.net> or drop by 338 Washington Ave. by 2 p.m. on Mondays.

Idalia News

Weather

Idalia weather for October by Tom Mandis. average high 70.0; average low 37.8; warmest day 89, Oct. 7; coolest day 32, Oct. 29; precipitation for month 0.78 inches; precipitation to date 15.95 inches.

St. John United Church of Christ

The Idalia Lions Club encourages members of the community attend a meal and program on Monday, Nov. 12, 6 p.m., at the Homestead. Please note time change! The meal will be deep-fried turkey with trimmings. At 7 p.m., Walter Hildebrand of Wray will share memories of his life in both Germany and the United States.

On Sunday, Nov. 11, the St. John Church Choir, under the leadership of Betty E. Moellenberg, will make its fall "debut" in worship. Everyone is welcome to come "make a joyful noise to the Lord" on this day.

On Sunday, Nov. 11, members of the Idalia community are encouraged to share worship and fellowship with residents of Burlington nursing homes. They will leave the St. John church parking lot at 1:30 p.m., and return by 5 p.m. Individuals and families of all ages are welcome to join in this important outreach ministry to others.

Christmas Shoebox project

Here is an opportunity to make any troubled child smile! Many are having tough times from natural disasters, war, famine and other events. All you need is a simple box filled with 4 types of gifts...new toys, school supplies, hygiene items, and other items such as hard candy, small flashlights, t-shirts and knitted caps and gloves.

Decorated boxes will be available at St. John United Church of Christ near the middle of November or you can decorate your own. If you have a few items, bring them and they will be combined to create a full box. Watch the newspaper for exact dates when boxes are available and for deadline near the end of the month. If you would prefer, they would do yours, also. For further information call Betty E. Moellenberg at 354-7343.

Annual Visions meeting in Idalia school cafeteria and voting of new directors on Nov. 14 at 6 p.m. Free spaghetti supper with meeting following at 7 p.m. EPYCS to serve.

There is no school at Idalia on Nov. 8 due to parent-teacher conferences from 1 - 7 p.m. This is a time to visit with the teachers.

Saturday, Nov. 3, Dorothy and John Whitmire from Iliff, came down from Burlington to visit and have lunch with her father, Cliff Like and sister, Barbara Like then headed home that evening after stopping by her daughter's and saying hello and saying happy Halloween to her grandchildren.

The pitch game was a blast. Deb Crites took high-female prize for the night with Ralph Weyerman taking low male score. Low female was Rebecca Harrel from Burlington.
