THE ACTION!

It is great to have the Haigler Cafe open again.

Western Dundy County Firehouse Toy Drive

To help some kids in western Dundy County have a great Christmas, Donna Carmen is organizing the first annual soup supper and bingo night scheduled for Saturday evening, November 17. They will serve supper from 4-7 p.m. Bingo starts at 7 p.m. Call 308-297-3276 for more information.

Among other previously mentioned friends, relatives and neighbors that have visited and helped Lois Zuege in her home were Kay Kamla on a Wednesday and Edith Roundtree, sister of Lois, on a Friday, doing chores such as vacuuming, general cleaning and other duties. Lois' broken arm is immobilized so many of these activities are difficult if not impossible with one hand. Sophia Zuege came again to help with laundry and making beds. Floy Ruggles and Sophia enjoyed a Spicy Tang drink with Lois on Friday afternoon.

Tom and Charlotte Myer of Wray treated Stan and Lois Zuege to dinner at a restaurant in Wray. Also at the dinner were Tom and Charlotte's daughter and husband, Shannon and Chris Stults, their young daughter, Morgan Grace, and Edith Roundtree. After dinner they all rode with Tom and Charlotte in their Van, touring various homestead sites north of Eckley. Among the homesteads visited were those of Lois's father, Raymond VanHorn; grandmother Mary Anna VanHorn and Aunt Mable VanHorn. They also visited the homesteads of Newt Carlock, other Carlock family home sites and that of Jennie Shepard.

An interesting fact about Grandmother VanHorn was that she was a midwife and had helped to deliver about 100 babies in her neighborhood.

It was an enjoyable afternoon, reminiscing old times, people and genealogy connections.

Tea Party Held at 67 South

The first of many events to be held at the country schoolhouse 67 South was a tea party last Tuesday, November 6. It was a very chilly morning, but candles and a heater helped to warm the building inside. Tables were decorated with fall decor and the last of the garden roses and mums for this season. Cinnamon coffee, cinnamon spice tea, homemade rolls, breads, jelly and jam, and cookies were served. Stories of one room country school experiences were shared, a code for teachers in 1872 was read, and several greetings were given from a 1918 School Song Knapsack book. Sisters Merry Lu (Wall) Simmons and Jeannie (Wall) Zuege sang a duet "Opening Song for School." Other school songs were also enjoyed and individual pictures were taken at the old school desk. Those attending the tea from Haigler were: Laura Pearl Wall, Sophie Zuege, Lillian Mahon, Veda Douglas, Joann Webster, Floy Ruggles, Virginia Harford, Violet Relph, Myrna Mulligan, Galena Webster, and LaNeta Carlock. Out of town guests were Jeannie Zuege of Hot Springs, South Dakota, Merry Lu Simmons and Helen Woods of Wray, Colorado.

Madison Perila was honored for her fifth birthday at a party at the Perila home in Westminster on November 10. The party was hosted by her parents, Laurie and Randy, sister, Laura, brother, Spencer and grandparents Merry Lu and Robert Simmons. Several children and adult friends were in attendance. Grandmother, Laura Pearl rode to Westminster with Quentin and Tonya Simmons and Pat Gallegos of Wray.

Jeannie Zuege from Hot Springs, S.D., drove to Haigler on November 5. She visited in the homes of Sophia Zuege and Laura Pearl Wall until November 8. She was pleased to attend the schoolhouse tea, hosted by LaNeta Carlock and her sisters, Myrna Mulligan and Galena Webster.

Visitors in the Floy and Ray Ruggles home on Saturday were Sharna Richardson in the early afternoon and Mel and Norma Fisher later in the evening.
