Thanks so very much for the many kindnesses that were shown to Irene Kehlbeck during her life, and especially during these past few years at Good Samaritan Village. The staff there is kind and patient, and were such a blessing to her.

Also thanks for the caring shown to her family. The meal provided by the St. John Lutheran ladies was absolutely delicious, and was greatly appreciated.
Irene had a wonderful life, but an even better one now. For this we are thankful most of all.
