Thank You

THANK YOU to everyone in Cheyenne County for your donation to the Food Pantry in 2007. Once again, you all stepped up to keep the food pantry shelves full for giving. Thank you, too, to those who helped fill the baskets. I am proud to serve as Pantry Coordinator for our county. Janet Jansen.

THANK YOU to my family and friends for the concern shared to me during my stay at the Hays hospital. The clinic and staff for the attention I received, the Equity crew for their support. The cards, calls and visits made the time go faster in Hays. The visits and concern here at home make me proud to call this area my home. Thank you, Gail Yonkey.

THANK YOU to the Good Samaritan Village employees and residents for the 40th anniversary party. Thanks for the cards, gifts and well wishes on a very enjoyable day. Bonnie Straub.

THANK YOU to our Salina Journal customers for all of the cookies, candy, breads, jellies and gratuity gifts. And for all the support throughout the year. All is greatly appreciated. Kenneth Wilkening Sr.

A SINCERE THANKS to the New Generation Fund Board for the grant we received. It will be used to improve the facilities at the Center. St. Francis Senior Center.

THANKS to the Chamber of Commerce for the prize money

I received during the Christmas Season. It is truly appreciated. Art Krueger.

THANK YOU to New Generation Fund for the monetary award. Your recognition of the community service provided by PRAIRIE LAND FOOD is sincerely appreciated.

THANK YOU FOR THE LOVE, concern, phone calls and cards from friends and family. And thank you for the wonderful care from Dr. Allard and the hospital staff, nurses to maintenance personnel. We are so fortunate to have such a wonderful hospital. To try to thank everyone individually is impossible—may God bless all of you! Love, Sylvia Raile.

THANK YOU to the Bird City volunteer fire department that did such a great job putting out the fire at our place. We really appreciated it. Dick and Delores Bursch.
