Birthday celebration
Daneen and Phil Hilger, from Edgerton, arrived at the home of Daneen's parents, Dale and Dode Faylor, Thursday afternoon, Feb. 7, for an 80th birthday celebration for Daneen's dad on Saturday, Feb. 9. (Dale's birthday being the 13th.)

On Saturday, Feb. 9, family members arriving for the birthday dinner were, Sherri Morabito and Mindee and Layton Reynolds from Abilene, Yvonne and Royce Clemans and Anthony, Lance Clemans and family all of Burlington Bradley Faylor and family and Kelley Faylor, all of St. Francis, Dwight and Kim Faylor and Ed Robinson of the Faylor Ranch.

Everyone returned to their homes Saturday Evening but Daneen and Phil Hilger who went to spend the night at the Royce Clemans home in Burlington. They went to Denver on Sunday to visit their oldest son, J.J. for the day then back to the Clemans home Sunday night. They returned to their home on Monday. Sherri, Mindee and Layton spent Saturday night with Sherri's parents, Dale and Dode, then returned to their homes on Sunday.

Twenty five had gathered for the dinner, making a full house - but what a joy having that many loved ones gathered for the celebration.

Card shower

Many current and former Haigler area residents remember Berneice Douglass who grew up around Haigler, later moved away, lived in Wray for several years and is now living at 1296 E Skyline Drive, Globe, AZ 85501. She will be celebrating her 85th birthday the 27th of February. Cards or letters from old acquaintances would be a nice surprise to make her day special.

United Methodist Women
President Deb Bush called our first meeting of the new year to order on Jan. 4, at 2:00 p.m., with six members being present. The Purpose was recited by all to open the meeting. Sally then offered devotionals on how people view things with a reading from "The Buzzards Are Circling But God's Not Finished With Me Yet!" Roll call, a Bible verse, was then answered. Deb offered the treasurer's report on Marilyn's behalf and the report was accepted and filed. The Response report "Youth With No Future" was given by Sally and Deb volunteered to give the February report.

Since the last meeting, there were 20 calls made and 19 cards and notes sent. In Joys and Concerns, Pastor Lana expressed concerns for family members and a friend of the family diagnosed with cancer. A thank you note from Carol Peterson, Sunday School Superintendent, was read for the goodie bags given out at the Festival of Carols. A letter was read from Ardith Banzhaf from Cambridge concerning prison ministry, "Released and Restored" with a challenge for funds to be sent. Deb will also present this letter at the next Church board meeting. In unfinished business, Deb requested new ideas and renewed enthusiasm for the annual Bazaar.

Under new business, those attending discussed having a Lenten Breakfast this year. The date was set for Saturday, March 1, at 8 a.m. Everyone is to bring a food dish and Pastor Lana will give the program. It was also decided to continue the evening meetings in the summer months. With no further business to discuss, the regular meeting was adjourned by Deb.

Myrna presented the Pledge Service program and Phyllis served as hostess. The next meeting will be the soup luncheon, held at noon, and Sally will be giving our Call to Prayer and Self-Denial program. Everyone is to bring a childhood picture. Roll Call will be leader's choice.

United Methodist Women
President Deb Bush called to order the Quiet Day-Call to Prayer and Self-Denial meeting on Feb. 1, following the noon soup luncheon. There were six members and one guest present. All recited the Purpose to open the meeting. Karen McVey offered the devotional from The Upper Room about Fred and Frank.

Roll call, "tell a lesson that you learned in grade school", was answered. Sally Leinen received a Corsage for Mission for her February birthday. Minutes from the Jan. 4, meeting were given. Deb gave the treasurer's report for Marilyn, which was then accepted and filed. The Response report, "Creating Healthier Communities", was given by Deb Bush and Myrna volunteered to give the March report.

Since the last meeting, there have been 10 calls made and 15 cards and notes sent. Prayer concerns were expressed by Emilio for a friend of the family facing a surgical procedure and Pastor Lana for two different situations with her grandchildren. There was no correspondence this month. Deb advised that the Church had approved sending a donation to the "Release and Restore" prison ministry and wanted ideas on the United Methodist Women matching funds. Motion was made that we send a smaller donation, seconded and carried.
