The 56th Cheyenne County Conservation District meeting and supper will be held at 6:30 p.m. on Thursday, Feb. 28, in the cafeteria at the St. Francis Community High School.

There will be a report of finances and activities from the supervisors of the county's conservation district. The terms of board members, Dan Busse and Spencer Schlep, will be expiring and an election will be held.

The meal is free but people planning to attend are asked to contact the conservation office, 785-332-2183 by this Thursday.

Check the special Cheyenne County Conservation issue inserted in next week's issue of The Saint Francis Herald and Bird City Times. There are articles about the Bankers Award winners and conservation practices. Take special notice of the advertisers who helped make the section possible.

Program schedule set for art association

Two programs are on the Western Plains Arts Association schedule the week of Feb. 24.

940 Dance Company
The association will host 940 Dance Company at 3 p.m. on Sunday at the Oakley High School auditorium. Admission will be by season ticket, or at the door.

The United States Navy Band from Washington, D.C., will present a concert at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 26, at the Colby Community Building, sponsored by Western Plains Arts Association.

To receive the free ticket required for admission, send your request and a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Pat Ziegelmeier, Colby Community College, 1255 South Range, Colby, KS 67702. Ticket orders should be sent as early as possible.

The band will perform a variety of popular and classical favorites under the direction of Captain George N. Thompson. Members of the Colby Community College band will join the Navy Band as they play John Philip Sousa's "Washington Post March."

Volunteers are needed to help organization succeed

By Karen Krien
karenk@nwks.com

Like many organizations, volunteers are needed to help the organization to succeed. The St. Francis Senior Center is no different. On Monday, 25 volunteers were recognized for all they do, from delivering meals to those who can't get out, to picking up dishes and serving coffee, to doing carpentry work.

The kitchen cooks hosted the brunch which consisted of a breakfast casserole, hash browns, tropical fruit, cherry turnovers and coffee.

"We appreciate all the help we get at the center and, holding this brunch once a year, is just a little 'thank you,'" said Janice Krien, head cook.

Others in the kitchen are Jo Ford, Neva Wahrman, Mildred Barnhart and Bonnie Krien.

Those recognized were: Rachael Keller, Mavern Gienger, Ken and Margaret Quigley, ErvaGene DeAragon, Art Krueger, Van and Nola Burrus, Charlie Rogers, Sparky and Ilene Nolan, Nina Raile, Hazel Douthit, Clarence Iliff, Willow Cook, Loyd Cadwell, Carol Redding, Hattie Terry, Bernice and Ruben Bandel, Chuck Pettijean, Darlene Feikert, Ilone Ketter, Marge Fossett, Ilene Raile, Bernice Zwegardt and Harland Rogers.

Members will gather in Colby

Many of the Lions Club members from the 34 Lions Clubs in northwest Kansas are making plans to attend the spring convention at the Colby Community College Campus on Friday and Saturday, March 7 and 8.

Lions District Governor Don Keihl of Goodland will preside over the annual gathering of the "Pride" of Northwest Kansas Lions as they renew friendships and rededicate their commitment to serving the less fortunate in their hometown communities.

Past International Director, Rick Myers, Fremont, Neb., will be the special guest dignitary and speaker for the Saturday evening banquet. He will be joined by Past International Director, Ernie Young, Lansing, and during the afternoon sessions they will conduct several short sessions on various topics to help "Pride" members renew leadership skills and learn new information of importance to carry out the Lions motto, "We Serve!"

The Colby High Plains Lions Club members will serve as hosts for the event. Club president Hazel Estes and secretary Virgil Jones head up the most important tasks of planning and generally seeing that all of the Lions experience a fun and informative gathering.

The 850 Lions of District 17-K4, The "Pride" of Northwest Kansas, covers 15,000 square miles and serves 34 towns from Bunker Hill to Goodland, and from St. Francis to Smith Center.
