

Public Notice

Notice published to control weeds

Published in The Saint Francis Herald, St. Francis, Kansas, and the Bird City Times, Bird City, Kansas, Thursdays, March 13 and March 20, 2008. (11-12)

GENERAL NOTICE TO CONTROL NOXIOUS WEEDS

The Kansas Noxious Weed Law K.S.A. 2-1314 et seq requires all persons who own or supervise land in Kansas to control and eradicate all weeds declared noxious by legislative action. The weeds declared noxious are: field bindweed, musk thistle, johnson grass, bur ragweed, Canada thistle, sericea lespedeza, leafy spurge, hoary cress, quack grass, Russian knapweed, kudzu and pignut. Bull thistle is a County Option Noxious Weed declared noxious by the Board of County Commissioners of Cheyenne County. Notice is hereby given pursuant to the Kansas Noxious Weed Law to every person who owns or supervises land in Cheyenne County that noxious weeds growing or found on such land shall be controlled and eradicated. Control is defined as preventing the production of viable seed and the vegetative spread of the plant.

Failure to observe this notice may result in the County:

1. Serving a legal notice requiring control of the noxious weeds within a minimum of five days. Failure to control the noxious weeds within the time period allowed may result in the county treating the noxious weeds at the land-owners expense and placing a lien on the property if the bill is not paid within 30 days or,

2. Filing criminal charges for non compliance. Conviction for non compliance may result in a fine of $100 per day of non-compliance with a maximum fine of $1500.

The public is also hereby notified that it is a violation of the Kansas Noxious Weed Law to barter, sell or give away infested nursery stock or livestock feed unless the feed is fed on the farm where grown or sold to a commercial processor that will destroy the viability of the noxious weed seed. Custom harvesting machines must be labeled with a label provided by the Kansas Dept. of Agriculture and must be free of all weed seed and litter when entering the State and when leaving a field infested with noxious weeds. Additional information may be obtained from the Cheyenne County Noxious Weed Department or by contacting the Kansas Dept. of Agriculture, 109 S.W. 9th, Topeka, KS 66612.

Haigler News

By Floy Ruggles

Ray and Floy Ruggles spent a part of Sunday helping Floy's daughter and husband, Sharna and Richard Richardson, move into their new location near Wray. They are moving from Eckley.

Sophia Zuege received word last Monday that a niece, Gloria Keller, had died in her home in Albuquerque, N.M. She was 68 years old.

March 16 and 17 reminded us that winter is not over yet, sending a blanket of 2 inches or more of snow to the area. Don't put the snow shovels away yet.

Quentin and Tonya Simmons with baby Taya, also Bob and MerryLu Simmons were guests of Laura Pearl Wall for Sunday dinner. Sydney Wall visited her grandmother, Laura Pearl, Monday morning and Sydney and Gracie Wall visited their aunt, Carol Flaming in Yuma later the same day.

Stan and LaNeta Carlock participated in the St. Patrick's Day Parade at Laird on Saturday. Their entry was a 1952 Army Jeep. There were 23 parade entries--including two handsome Belgian horses. Lunch was hosted by Marv and MaryAnn Carlock, with the 100+ attendees contributing covered dish casseroles and desserts. A good time was had by all--Irish and non-Irish; and plans are already underway for the third annual parade next year.

Galena and Stan Webster hosted an early Easter supper in their home on Palm Sunday evening. Honored guest was father LaVoine Collicott from Hillcrest Care Center in Wray. Other family members attending were Darrell Webster, LaNeta and Stan Carlock, and Myrna Mulligan. Charlie Mulligan stopped in earlier in the afternoon. It was a very stormy drive back to Wray, with snow, rain, ice, and whiteouts on the road. It was indeed a typical March spring snowstorm; but all arrived home safely.
