Scouts hold annual Pinewood Derby

The annual Pinewood Derby was held Sunday afternoon in the St. Francis Grade School gym.

The derby is one of the most popular events in Cub Scouting. This year, the derby was won by Blake Meyer.

There were 12 Cub Scouts, along with their parents, grandparents, siblings and friends gathered to cheer on their favorite Cub. Taking second was Chris Hoard; and A.J. Miller came in third.

Racing was first done at the den level with Steven Schorzman winning first in the Tiger den. Trayton Doyle was winner of the Wolf den. Bears winner was Jacob Hamilton, who took first; Ryan Grover was second and Conner McBride placed third.

Since several pre-scout age boys were in attendance, a race for them resulted as follows: Rylan Doyle, first; Chandler Hamilton, second; Josh Van Allen, third; and Johnnie Schorzman, fourth.

Dads, granddads and adult leaders even entered the action. Travis Milne won first; Gary Morris took second, and Kris Doyle came in third.

Prior to the races, cars were judged for originality, uniqueness, creativity, use of imagination, quality of paint job, use of color and decoration, workmanship, details and overall appeal. Steven Schorzman and Jake Hamilton tied for first; Trayton Doyle took second; and A.J. Miller and Taryn Zwegardt tied for third.

As with farming, baseball and gardening, many of the scouts said they were looking forward to next year!
