Memorial service

The Collicott sisters honored their father, LaVoine Collicott, in a beautiful Memorial service on Monday morning, April 21, at the Methodist Church in Haigler. Each of the sisters paid tribute to their father using their varied talents - LaNeta in public speaking, Galena in poetry and singing a beautiful pre-recorded solo, "It is no Secret" accompanied by Myrna on the piano. Myrna skillfully played a piano solo "The Lord's Prayer" to pay tribute to the countless times her father took her to piano lessons. Skip and Rich Mulligan represented the other grandchildren: Daniela and Darrel Webster; and Mitchell and Matthew Collicott, in giving tribute by reading a poem about memories of Grandpa. Other outstanding musical selections were a violin solo given by Louanne Isernhagen and the Swinging Seniors who presented two favorite songs, "Silver-Haired Daddy of Mine" and "One Day At A Time." Stanley Carlock gave the obituary reading. Terry Douglass spoke words of comfort and Carol Peterson provided pleasing piano music for the Prelude and Postlude.

85th birthday

Wall was the reason of a lot of celebrating of the Wall family and friends. The first party was hosted by Carol and Jay Flaming of Yuma on April 13. The second was a special dinner at the Golden Inn. The final birthday observance was on Sunday, April 20. Several members of the Wall family attended church service at the United Methodist Church where MerryLu had signed to be hostess for the fellowship period following the morning worship conducted by Richard Bannister. The congregation enjoyed the bountiful brunch served by the Simmons, assisted by LuAnne Wall, and Laurie and Randy Perila. Some of the guests went to the Wall home later in the afternoon.

The family members who had helped with the celebrating were: Duane and LuAnn Wall, Dwight Wall; MerryLu and Robert Simmons; Carol and Jay Flaming; Heather, Greg, Logan and Noel Klein; Quentin, Tonya, and Taya Simmons; Dustin, Christy, Sydney and Gracie Wall; Randy, Laurie, Madison and Spencer Perila; Wendy and Blaine Lee; John and Donnie Clark; Kris Young; Kevin Clark; Royal and Helen Woods; Bruce, Valerie, Brianna, Shelby and Seth Woods.

Jeannie Zuege of Hot Springs, S.D. came to Haigler on Monday to help with the celebration of her mother, Laura Pearl Wall's 85th birthday at the Golden Inn. She spent Monday and Tuesday nights at the Wall home and Wednesday and Thursday nights with Sophia Zuege. She returned to Hot Springs on Friday. Dwight Wall of Lewellen participated in the parties planned for his mother's birthday. He came to the Golden Inn on Tuesday, came again on Friday and attended church and the party following on Sunday.

Pastor Inez Foster of Spencer, Neb., came to the home of Laura Pearl Wall on Thursday. She was taking advantage of the spring break of the school at Lake Andes, S.D., where she teaches. She returned to Spencer on Saturday to assume her preaching and pastoral duties on Sunday. Her schedule keeps her busy but she enjoys her work at both the school and church.
