Council holds special meeting about personnel

By Margaret Bucholtz
margeb@cityofstfrancis.net

A special meeting was called by the St. Francis City Council to discuss personnel on Wednesday, June 4.

After several minutes the council came out of executive session and the following decisions were made:

- They excepted the resignation of Kent Allard, city police clerk. Mr. Allard had been hired to replace Sarah Clogston in May.
- Chief policewoman, Deborah Farland, turned in her resignation and the council accepted it.

Shane Guggenmos will be interim chief. Both Chief Guggenmos and Jim Wolters told the council that they did their own reports in the past and would be willing to do them here. The two officers felt that, between them and the part-time officer, they could cover the city.

At the last 911 dispatch meeting, it was discussed that the city was not rolling their phone over to dispatch. After visiting with the two police officers, they decided it would not be a problem to roll the phones over. All calls will go through dispatch and then routed to the party the caller is trying to reach.

Meet District judge candidate

Those wanting to meet Scott Showalter, candidate for District Judge, should come to the St. Francis Library at 5 p.m. on Monday.

Record your guess

By Karen Krien

Harvest could be a little later this year. The wheat is still green in this area but, just east down U.S. 36, wheat is starting to turn color. So, what is the date and time of the first cutting in the St. Francis/Wheeler area?

The Harvest Countdown Contest has begun! There are five St. Francis businesses sponsoring the contest this year. They have entry tickets for anyone wanting to register their guess of the minute, hour and day of the first load of wheat brought into one of the St. Francis or Wheeler elevators.

There will be three people winning a total of $100 in scrip money ($50 first prize, $35 second prize, and $15 third prize).

The county wheat crop has had some moisture this year. However, even with snow and a little rain, the wheat is looking dry in some areas.

Earlier, Jeanne Falk, multi-county agronomy specialist, said, overall, the wheat in the area is looking pretty good for the weather the area has had. She urges all interested people to attend the county Wheat Field Day on Wednesday starting at 5:30 p.m.

Rules are:
• Guess the day, hour and minute of the arrival of the first load that has a moisture content of 13 percent or less.

The contest allows anyone over 18 years who is not employed at the newspaper or related to someone who is to try to guess when the first load of wheat will be brought into one of the elevators in St. Francis and Wheeler.

• The winners of last year's contest are not eligible to win this year.

• The scrip money won will need to be spent in participating businesses.

The Herald is sponsoring the contest but it would not be possible if it were not for the participating businesses: Pizza Hut, Hilltop Market, St. Francis Equity, St. Francis Super's and The Saint Francis Herald. Boxes and entry blanks along with the contest rules are located in these businesses.

Look for the sign in the window and register your guess at the service counters. Be sure to check their merchandise and services while in the business.

Bill Bracelin, Bracelin Brothers Harvesting, brought in the first load last year which was cut from a field owned by Craig Schoenrogge. It was brought in to the St. Francis Equity on June 20 and had a test weight of 58.9 and the moisture was 12.4 percent.

Winners of the contest were Wilma Lampe, first; Danielle Gardner, second and Betty Loudon, third.

Behind the Scenes

By Janet Carmen

The Cheyenne County Historical Society has been active this spring. During the Car Show, several members helped collect donations for the band shell at the Elvis performance. Then on Memorial weekend members opened the Museum for visitors. The last week of May, volunteers helped clean the church in preparation for a wedding. On May 31, the Ways and Means Committee served lunch at the "Old Barns - New Ideas" workshop.

The Museum will be open during the Stearman Fly-In on June 14.

Following that, during alumni weekend on Saturday, June 21, a brat lunch to benefit the Historical Society will be served at the Museum.

Finally, don't forget the challenge that has been made to all St. Francis high school alumni to out-donate the classes of 1948 and 1953. Those donations will go to the refurbishing of Ye Olde Country Church. Museum director, Margaret Bucholtz, reports that some donations from St. Francis alumni have already come in since the classes of 1948 and 1953 sent out that challenge. Winners will be announced Saturday night at the banquet.

Elton Keller, chairman of Ye

Olde Country Church Committee, informs members that church renovation plans are progressing. Early in the spring, Eddy Schultz made a cradle for the old church bell and it is now in place. At the May meeting, Historical Society members were eager to take turns pulling the rope so they could once again enjoy the sound of the old bell.

St. Francis News

Ernie and Marlene Lebfrom went to Hays on May 30 to visit Justin, Kayla, Britney, Christian and Bryna Schleppe. They also enjoyed seeing Linda Miller of Arnett, Okla., Clarence and Marie Schultze of Hays and Lynn Brandt of Lawrence.

That evening everyone attended the dance recital of Becky's School of Dance at Beach-Schmidt Performing Arts Center at Fort Hays State University where Britney, who is 14-years-old, and Bryna, who is 5 years-old, danced in the recital.

While in Hays they also enjoyed watching a video of Britney's eighth grade graduation. Britney had written an essay and was chosen to make a speech at the graduation on her essay.

Wilma Lampe was a guest of her nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil E. Terry of Aurora, Colo., the weekend of May 24 and 25. She then flew to Austin, Texas, and visited with Barb and Bill Stevenson during the week.

Wilma and Barb spent several days at the beach house at Port Aransas while there to celebrate their birthdays of May 28 and May 29.

Upon returning to Denver, Wilma was a guest of Linda Gutsch on Friday to Sunday and helped Linda celebrate her birthday with a dinner at the White Fence Farm in Lakewood.

Wilma returned home Sunday evening.

On Wednesday Betty Jean Winston joined Shawn and Leigh Legere and Miles of Overland Park on a vacation to Madison, Miss., a suburb of Jackson.

On Thursday evening they took a ride down the Natchez Trail where they observed gators lying on a log in the water.

Leigh and Betty Jean took a side trip down a tree-lined interstate into Alabama on Friday morning.

The Boss

A husband is advised by a psychiatrist to assert himself. "You don't have to let your wife henpeck you. Go home and show her you are the boss." Of course the husband takes the doctor's advice. He rushes home, slams the door, shakes his fist in his wife's face and growls, "From now on, you're taking orders from me. I want my supper right now, and when you get it on the table, go upstairs, and lay out my best clothes. Tonight, I'm going out with the boys and you are going to stay at home where you belong. And another thing...you know who's going to comb my hair, adjust my pants, and then tie my bow tie?"

"I certainly do," says his wife calmly. "The undertaker."

Thanks Susan!
