

NEW FACE AT KRIEN PHARMACY — Lea Acuff, student intern, goes over a prescription with Dr. Kody Krien.

Student interns at local pharmacy

There has been a new face behind the pharmacy counter at Krien Pharmacy.

Lea Acuff, Goodland, is attending Kansas University Pharmacy School. New this year, the university is placing students in pharmacies throughout the state so they can work a one-month summer intern rotation.

Ms. Acuff said she wanted to go into some part of the medical field. She said a pharmacist can live anywhere and be guaranteed of a job.

Kody Krien, owner and pharmacist, said Ms. Acuff was the first student interning at his pharmacy. Since the school is planning to continue the program, he said he will be participating and expects at least one new student a year.

Ms. Acuff arrived to work in St. Francis on June 30. Thursday will be her last day.

She said she has enjoyed working with Dr. Krien and with the people in the St. Francis area. On Monday, she followed Dr. Rebecca Allard around in the clinic and hospital. On Tuesday afternoon, she spoke with the nursing staff at the Good Samaritan Village in St. Francis.

If the pharmacist understands what is going on at the hospital, Dr. Krien said, then we are able to do a better job here at the pharmacy.

Ms. Acuff has been driving from Goodland every day to work. She graduated from Goodland High School. Her parents are Mark and Kim Acuff of Goodland. She has three sisters.

Advanced voting booth is open

The primary election will be held on Tuesday, Aug. 5.

Terry Miller, county election officer, announced the advance voting booth opened Monday in the clerk's office in the courthouse. Many people find the advanced voting booth to be convenient, especially if they have other plans for Aug. 5.

Officer Miller said this year, all voting on Aug. 5 will be held in two places: at the American Legion hall in Bird City, and at the United Methodist Church in St. Francis. There will be no voting at Peace Lutheran or in the basement of the courthouse.

There are a four local races in the primary. The winners of these races will be uncontested in the general election unless there is a write-in campaign.

Running on the Republican ticket for District Court Judge, District 15, division 2 are: Kevin Berens, Scott Showalter and Andrea Wyrick.

In the race for District Magistrate Judge District 15, position 1 are: Robert Van Allen, incumbent; and Steve Orth.

Republicans running for the office of county treasurer are: Dolores Jenik, incumbent; and Carl Jenkins.

County sheriff candidates running on the Republican ticket are: Craig Van Allen, incumbent; David Warren and Philip Wollers.

Other local candidates to be listed on the ballot are: Ray Lee, county commissioner, District 2; Andy Beikman, county commissioner, District 3; Terry Miller, county clerk; Mary Morrow (R), register of deeds; Kair Milliken Gilliland (R), county attorney; Robert Van Allen, (R) incumbent; and Steve Orth (D), candidates for District Magistrate Judge District 15, position 1; Ryan Shay and Diane Shay, both Republicans, Wano II Township committeeman and woman; Roger Moore (R), Wano I Township trustee; Fred Magley (R), Wano II Township trustee.

The results of the election will be listed in the Aug. 7 issue of The Saint Francis Herald and the Bird City Times.

The general which includes the presidential election will be held on Tuesday, Nov. 4.
