MYSTERY PICTURE — People were curious about why this bush made it in The Herald last week! Well, this is one of two bushes on either side of the courthouse. They are overgrown and hinder the view of traffic. The commissioners have tentatively agreed to have them removed and put in some different landscaping.

BUSINESS MOVES to Main Street. Ann Fromholtz styles Amy Christensen's hair in her new shop.

A beauty salon has opened up in a new location with a new name.

Ann's Classy Cuts and Styles, formerly Kut N' Kurl, has opened at 414 E. Washington St. in St. Francis.

Operated by Ann Fromholtz, the shop will be open on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Fridays from 8 a.m. to however late it takes to work customers in. She also welcomes people walking in for an appointment and she will try to work them in as quickly as possible. Appointments can be made by calling her at 785-332-3338.

Services include: nails, pedicures, manicures, waxing, tanning, colors, perms, cuts and styling. Customers include men, women and children.

She carries a full line of Rush hair products.

She recently purchased the shop along with a tanning bed from Kodi Lauer. Located on Main Street and close to the school, she plans on being busy.

Mrs. Fromholtz graduated from Northwest Kansas Technical College in the cosmetology program. She had worked at her shop on Fourth Street for the last two years.

She and her husband, Derek, have two sons, Dodge, who is 3 years old, and Dayton, who is 5 months.

Funds available for organizations

The William H. Gerber and Velma C. Gerber Charitable Trust is now accepting applications to disburse funds to charitable organizations. Mr. Gerber, during his lifetime, established the William H. Gerber and Velma C. Gerber Charitable Trust.
