Sondra S. Bracelin, Broker

I am pleased to announce that I am a newly licensed real estate broker having had my salesperson's license since May of 1982. I have been privileged to work with 3 great Real Estate Brokers, Betty M. Loudon (she got me started), Frederick E. Sherlock (What a joy), and with Donald E. Love, a very special man, who decided this past year to retire and encouraged me to make the decision to get my Broker's license. I will work hard to help you sell your property or assist you in finding just the right property.

I am not retiring from R.M. Jaqua Abstract Company and will continue to provide the quality and reliable service you want and need including Title Insurance, Abstracts and real estate closings.
