Sainty places fourth at Ellis

Terrence Lamb and Jesse Pacheco were named champions at the 3-2-1A Regional Wrestling tournament in Ellis Saturday. Pacheco wrestles at 145 and Lamb at 130. Also qualifying for state were Cody Sherlock, who placed third at 125 pounds, Freddy Pacheco, who placed fourth at 112 pounds and Darris Keller, who placed fourth at 135 pounds.

These five wrestlers will be carrying the St. Francis banner to Hays next weekend at the 3-2-1A State Tournament.

Also participating for St. Francis at regionals were David Leibbrandt at 119 pounds, Grady Brunk at 160 pounds, Scott Ford at 171, and Adam Guthmiller at 189 pounds. A number of team points were earned by wrestlers who won matches even though they did not qualify for state.

"This was our best tournament of the year so far," Coach Mike Frewen said. "What helped us a lot was having a lot of pins. Fifteen out of our 26 wins were by pins which means we got 30 extra pin points. Two extra points for having a pin adds up fast.

"Of the teams which finished in the top eight, we had the smallest lineup (nine wrestlers).

Norton won the Ellis crown with 204.5 points. They were followed by Goodland with 148 points, Hosington with 112.5 points and St. Francis with 110 points, who was only 2.5 points away from third place.

Additional information, including who the St. Francis wrestlers will meet in their first match on Friday, is given in the state wrestling article.

"We had a good day," Coach Frewen said. "There were a lot of tough weights.

"Freddy (Pacheco) won his first two matches and then he met the number one ranked kid (Bainter/Norton). He came back from this loss and won his next match to qualify to wrestle for the third or fourth place. In his final match he wrestled well but lost to Holub of Thomas More Prep - Marian.

"David (Leibbrandt) got some good experience and he battled hard.

"Cody (Sherlock) was in one of the very toughest weights, a really close weight and he did not wrestle as good as usual. Many of the matches were won by one point which is tough. After being defeated by Shelton of Goodland by one point he battled back and won two matches by one point each to place third.

"Terrence (Lamb) only gave up six points in the whole tournament. He wrestled really well. In the finals he beat Keiswetter of Norton. Keiswetter had placed sixth at state last year and had defeated Lamb just two weeks ago. It was the best tournament he has had all year.

"Darris (Keller) won three matches by pins. He lost his semi to Keiswetter of Norton who is ranked one of the top three in this weight. He battled tough. He was defeated by Deeds of Goodland for third place in a close match.

"Jesse (Pacheco) is getting better each match. He wrestled the Norton kid (McKenna) who beat him in at Phillipsburg in the finals and he beat him pretty easy. This was his best match of the year.

Grady (Brunk) won his first two matches. He then met a kid ranked in the state and was defeated. In his match to qualify to wrestle for third and fourth, with 20 seconds remaining he was getting ready to finish a takedown for the win but Shaughnessy of Cimarron turned things around and pinned him. It was so close. Shaughnessy got third in the tournament.

Scott (Ford) went 2-2 for the tournament. He was putting out 100 percent effort. In his last match when he was trying to qualify for state he wrestled the hardest he has wrestled all year. He lost by a close 10-9 score.

"Both Scott Ford and Adam Guthmiller had bad draws for the tournament. It would have been better for them to be on the other side of the bracket. It would have been an easier route for them to qualify.

Adam had the state's number one wrestler in this weight in his first match (Nickel/Hosington). He kept battling back and defeated Sprout of Norton by a fall. Sprout had defeated him twice at the Phillipsburg tournament. He then met Jirak of Oakley. Adam had never completed a match with him before but this time instead of being pinned he had the score tied 6-6 with 30 second to go. Adam was taking him to his back for a pin but just made a mistake and Jeurik got a reversal and back points for the 10-6 win. This was the best two days of tournament wrestling I have seen from Adam.

"The effort they gave almost every game was excellent and I couldn't have been more pleased with that aspect of their game. They out-hustled most teams and certainly care enough to give me what I ask for.

"They will definitely be fun to watch in the next several years, especially if they work in the off season to improve their skills.

Ladies play shortened game on Friday

"We didn't come out ready to play," said Susan Dinkel following the basketball game with Quinter Friday evening.

"We usually have a second half so that we can regain our composure at half time, but with a shortened game, we were unable to do that. Our shooting wasn't very good and we had numerous turnovers.

"Although several of the girls were ill, we have to learn to overcome adversity and dig deep to still give it everything we've got, plus a little more.

"OK - so maybe I ask for a lot, but, we still should have been able to beat this team. Unfortunately, we just didn't."

The final score was 25-17.

Scoring for St. Francis were Kaitlin Figgins 8, Kaycee Williams 3, Aly Marin 3, Jenna Hill 3.

Season wrap up

"For the season, I am very pleased with their growth as a team," Coach Dinkel said.

"They really started improving and understanding what type of basketball Coach Flemming and I are looking for from them. Hopefully, they will work hard in the off season to improve their shooting and their ball-handling, becoming more confident in their had no basketball experience coming to us. Although they didn't get to play much throughout the season, except in C-Team games, they learned a great deal and were eager to try anything we threw at them."
