Almost 40 entries were on the PTA Talent Show program Sunday afternoon. Three divisions: kindergarten through third grade; fourth through sixth grade and seventh grade through adults, found nine winners. Winning the over-all prize was SCZ - The Band, made up of Gavin Cooper, Isaac Schiltz, Brock Zwegardt and Ty Zwegardt.

In the kindergarten through third grade division, placing first was The Third Grade Girls, Hanna Bracelin, Emileigh Dinkel, Madison Tice and Matthisen Witzel, who sang "Mama, I'm A Big Girl Now." Second place went to Cody Baxter doing a break dance to "Balling;" and Alex Queen, who took the song off the commercial "Free Credit Report.Com," took third.

In the fourth through sixth grade division, out of the 15 entries, the group, Aerosmith Meets Mrs. Doubtfire, consisting of Garrett Brunk, Lane Hobrock, Justin Pacheco, Taylor Rogers and Travis Rogers, walked away with first place. Second place went to Payton Beims, who, in full costume, played "Phantom of the Opera" on the piano. Jude and Jake Faulkender sang the song, "Heart 'n Soul," and took third place.

There were also 15 entries in the seventh through adult division. Isaac Schiltz took first with a drum solo, "Drums With A Twist." Second place went to Alyssa Lee, who sang "Crazy." The SCZ band, who also were declared the winner of the over-all prize, took third with the same number.

Introducing the performers were Relda Galli and Sally Peterson, both of Colby. Judges were Melanie Biel, Goodland, Ashley Wright, Colby; and Sally Parker, Idalia.

Jo Rogers, PTA president, thanked all those participating and especially wanted to recognize St. Francis schools music instructors, Debbie Fiala and Jean Ann Confer.

Each grade school contestant received a bowling pass for participating.

PAYTON BEIMS played 'Phantom of the Opera' and earned a second place in his division.
