A number of former residents mark the date of the Riverside Rendezvous on their calendar. This is a time for heading to Sainty and the Riverside golf course to compete in one of the top tournaments scheduled in the area each year. Members and their guests have filled the slots of the tournament again this year.

The 31st playing of the event took place Aug. 14 through Aug. 16.

The two-man team of Tim Poling and Andy Poling took the top prize, as winners of the championship flight. Wade Quiggle and Branson Real placed second while Roger Lauer and Kevin Finley took third. There was a tie for fourth place in this flight between the team of Matt Smull and Tyson Shelly and the team of Gerald Lauer and Tyler Lauer.

The first flight had a tie between Jason Johnson and Travis Daise and Tom Smull and Dev Mull for first place and a tie between Bob Lippert and Monte Arends and Chris Bracelin and Wade Porter for third place.

Terry O'Leary and Justin Haislip won the second flight with Mike Frewen and Daryl Schultz placing second. Four different teams tied for third and fourth place. The two-man teams were Dustin Gilliland and Bill Carpenter; Gene Dodd and Bill Landau; Brett Poling and
