

Students tell about their Christmas activities

St. Francis fourth graders were asked to tell about their family's Christmas traditions. They were also asked what was their favorite Christmas and why.

My family's Christmas tradition is that we go to my Nana and Papa's house in Hoxie with my cousins. We all eat lunch then open presents and play with them after that. That is what we do for my family's Christmas traditions.

A Christmas I remember was when we went to my aunt's house. They woke me up when I was sleeping and they said Santa was here. I got up and we watched Santa call our names when he pulled out the presents. Kobe, Connor and I were so excited we could barely wait till morning.

Madison Tice

My favorite Christmas tradition is going to my grandma's house and sometimes we go to my great-grandma's house. I like to get together and play with my cousins, Ashley, Sarah, Ellie, Janeah, Brookley, Kean on my Dad's side. On my Mom's side are Cade, Hanna, Jaxon.

Emileigh Dinkel

My family's tradition is we go to my grandma and sort presents and then we open them and if we get clothes, we try them on.

My favorite Christmas is when we went to Amarillo, Texas, and we had to stay in a hotel and played Bingo.

Jylian Laten

My favorite family tradition is going to Colorado Springs to see family and celebrate Christmas. We also go to my Grandma's house in town and play with my cousins.

A Christmas I remember was last year. My family stayed here and went to my Grandma Bonnie's house and my great-grandma was there. Last year was her last year to come because she lives too far away.

Zoe Sundstrom

My favorite tradition was when we had to find the presents so it was like a treasure hunt and she gave us clues to find the presents and then we opened them.

Merry Christmas

Dalton Straub

My favorite family tradition is every year, we go to my Grandma's and Grandpa's house before Christmas. We go from youngest to oldest for opening presents.

Luke Lampe

One of our family's Christmas traditions is to make pretzels with white chocolate and peppermint candies on top. and every time we would eat one, we would think of all the love and time we put into them — that is how good they tasted. They make you feel warm and happy every time you take a bite.

My favorite Christmas was last year when all of my family was together. I was happy and was excited to open presents and have a Merry Christmas!

McKinnley Bartels
