

Richard and Darlene Brubaker

Couple to celebrate 60 years of marriage

Richard and Darlene Brubaker are celebrating 60 years of marriage. They were married on Mother's Day, May 14, 1950, at the Methodist Church in Goodland.

After a wedding breakfast, hosted by the groom's parents at their home in Bird City, the couple traveled to Goodland for the ceremony.

Following the wedding ceremony, Richard and Darlene returned to Bird City, where they presented each of their mothers with a dozen red roses in honor of Mother's Day.

Their daughters welcome anyone wishing to extend congratulations to send them to: P.O. Box 399, Bird City, KS 67731.

The couple's children and spouses are Paula and Gary Groff, Bellevue, Neb.; Darla and John Deeds, Bird City, and Kayla and Chris Ochsner, Colorado Springs, Colo.

Grandchildren are: Tara Kaldahl, Erika Likens, Adam Deeds and Drew Ochsner.

Richard and Darlene have six great-grandchildren.

Student receives herdsman award

Trey Lohman, son of Karol Lohman, St. Francis, and Terry Lohman, Leavenworth, won the Kansas State University Herdsman Award at the 82nd Kansas State University Little American Royal. The event was held in Weber Arena on the K-State campus in Manhattan on April 24.

The Little American Royal originated in 1924 as an exhibition and parade of University livestock, patterned after the American Royal. Today, the Little American Royal is an opportunity for any K-State student to learn about the livestock and animal agriculture industry through the fitting and showing contest of the university-owned livestock.

The Herdsman award is an honor given to a student participating in the Little American Royal, who has shown outstanding leadership, responsibility and teamwork.

Trey, a sophomore at K-State majoring in animal science and industry, received an engraved plaque and several sponsor gifts.
