Sherri Gregory posted, on the Haigler Blog, a poem that Floy Crabtree-Fisher wrote when she was a teenager about her father, Frank Crabtree. Floy revised it a bit and added a few lines to it before sending it. A few Haiglerites may remember that Frank lived past 100 years old. Floy now owns the property where the Crabtrees...Frank, Mae and son Lloyd lived. They all are now deceased.

The strange "bob cat" was seen again. This time it was going across the yard then trotting up the the middle of a gravel street, west, toward the school. It seemed to know where it was going. Does someone in Haigler have a rare breed of cat? We are curious. Call 297-3605 if you know.

The Saturday afternoon open house at the Legion community building gave participants an opportunity to renew friendships and visit. The Sunday pot luck luncheon honored classes of 1935, 1940, 1945, 1950, 1955, 1960, 1965, 1970, 1975. The 50th year class of 1960 hosted the program with a skit entitled "Hats Off to Haigler Alumni." Everyone enjoyed the events and look forward to next year.

Open house at

Country Schoolhouse 67

The Sunday afternoon open house at Country Schoolhouse 67 South was attended by many people in town for the Alumni/Memorial weekend. Much progress was noted inside the schoolhouse with all the new drywalling, painting, windows, blinds, and wainscoting, new oak floor--plus some furniture being moved in. Additional donations were received to complete the project this year, as well as the extended Haigler Cornerstone Museum project beginning. Watch for more details in the future.

50th reunion

Saturday evening, LaNeta and Stan Carlock hosted LaNeta's 50th high school reunion class. Of the 13 seniors who graduated in 1960, four are deceased: Margaret Oster Zies, Raymounda Koons, Dale Cline, and Dick Hoover. Of those nine living, eight were able to attend the reunion, along with their spouses and/or extended family: Karen Zuege Kreachbaum of Sterling, Colo.; Sandra Haskell Harrach of Scottsbluff, Neb.; Shirley Walter Gooder of Alda, Neb.; Calvin Freehling of Indianola, Neb.; C. David Samler of Benkelman, Neb.; Kenneth Stute of Sidney, Neb.; and Calvin Zuege of Fort Worth, Texas. The classmate not attending was Judy Stute Lut-ticken of San Diego, Calif.

Following a social hour and buffet dinner; the group enjoyed returning to their "old high school gym" where dessert was served. A movie, produced by LaNeta, was shown of the all the elementary school and high school class pictures, the old schoolhouse, Haigler clips, and a remembrance of life in the 50's and early 60's. A good time was enjoyed by all who attended.
