For weeks, the St. Francis City cleaning up property within the city limits. To show that they are serious about cleaning up, there are two property owners who will be in court in mid August. These owners have been warned numerress but the council decided to proceed with the court hearings.

Kenny Richers, owner of the Emerson Street property; and Bud Erskin, owner of the River Street property.

There are some questionable trees that may be considered a nuisance. One location is at the top of the hill at Second and College streets. The council will take a look at these trees.

Swimming pool report

Bruce Swihart, councilman, reported that the "dive in" evening swim was postponed until July 27 due to inclement weather. Swim team is now over and there was an end of season party on July 25. Lessons are finishing up for the year. The swimming pool closes in less than one month, Mr. Swihart said. He said there was one complaint and pool management had handled it.

Theater Committee report

Paula Keller, council woman and member of Theater Committee, said Dennis Finner, with the Small Business Development Center, Bird City, will be at the Aug. 9 meeting to discuss moneymaking ideas to purchase theater equipment. Police report

Shane Guggenmos, chief of police, reported that the new hire prospect had found another job. They will be re-opening the position. The sheriff has agreed to take some call time, said Mr. Guggenmos, but they would like more coverage until they have a new

Superintendent's report

Superintendent J.R. Landenberger reported that First Street is finally open, and the condition is much improved. There is a need for help at the Roadside Park and a job description will be filed.

Felzien Street was elevated, Mr. Landenberger said, and the drainage is much improved. Felzien Street runs north and south between Pizza Hut and Bill Wilson Monday at city hall.

Mr. Landenberger suggested the council consider a new water system/water tower. There were some issues, said Mr. Landenberger, during the wind storm and power outages. Mr. Landenberger said the system is dated, and during power outages may have problems with water delivery.

Other business

In other business:

 A small business incentive was given to Computer Solutions owned by Galen and Judy Lambert at 109 N. Quincy.

 A landscape license was approved for Troy Porter. • A tree trimming license was postponed for Delbert Rice, as insurance limits need to be increased.

• The council agreed to let the county have a secure, dedicated phone line for the 911 call center in the St. Francis Emergency Building. If there is an emergency, the county has a portable unit for 911 calls and the unit could be set up in the emergency manager's office in the building.
