National service needs volunteers

Want to make a difference in your community? Not afraid of people, computers, tax returns, personal challenges, or learning new things?

AARP Tax-Aide, the nation's largest free, volunteer-run tax preparation and assistance service, may have just the opportunity. Tax-Aide is seeking volunteers across the state to help Kansas taxpayers prepare and file their tax returns next year.

Volunteers do not need to be an AARP member or retiree to participate. AARP Tax-Aide volunteers receive free tax training and are reimbursed on a limited basis for qualified program-related expenses. They learn new skills while making a real difference in their communities.

Kansas AARP Tax-Aide District 11 is particularly in need of additional volunteers to help serve at more than a dozen sites in rural Northwest Kansas serving Rawlins, Thomas, Decatur, Sherman, Sheridan, Logan, Cheyenne and Wallace county taxpayers.

"Each year, District 11 assists more than a thousand rural taxpayers prepare and file their returns," said Ardis Stark, volunteer district coordinator from Atwood.

"Kansas is fortunate to have a great group of dedicated AARP Tax-Aide volunteers, who make an indelible mark on the communities they serve," said Bill Fritschen, volunteer state coordinator from Hays. "However, to continue meeting the demand for our services, we simply need more help - especially in the rural areas of our state."

For more information and links to an on-line application, visit the Kansas Tax-Aide web site at www.kansastaxaide.org or the national web site at www.aarp.org/taxaide.

AARP Tax-Aide is a program of the AARP Foundation, offered in conjunction with the IRS.

You can't always be there for an aging parent, or loved one who lives alone. But you can help increase their confidence to live independently - with Philips Lifeline through Cheyenne County Hospital. Lifeline is a simple, wireless device worn as a pendant or wristband that allows the wearer to summon help with the push of a button from anywhere in their home or yard, 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. The button connects to a trained Lifeline response associate, who quickly accesses the profile and calls responders for help.
