The Collicott sisters, LaNeta, Myrna, and Galena spent Thursday in McCook. They enjoyed a Mexican fare lunch, celebrating Galena's Aug. 21 birthday.

The Haigler Red Hatters carpooled to Benkelman on Friday for their August outing. Hostesses Jeannie Blecha and Carolyn Rosenfelt had a delightful luncheon and afternoon planned. The group met at the Senior Center for a delicious chicken fried steak meal; then toured the Dundy County Museum at the old Morehouse Hospital in Benkelman. Many of the group were born in that hospital and/or had memories of stays or visits there when the hospital was in operation. FolFloy

Members of the Haigler United Methodist Women group visited the Hester Nursing Home in Benkelman on Friday afternoon. President of the group, Karen Harford, led the program with puppet shows and singing. Fellow member, Sally Daniels also helped with the puppet show. Myrna Mulligan played the piano; and members, Marilyn Bannister and Deb Bush assisted with the singing. Also helping with the program was Myrna's sister, LaNeta Carlock. The group served ice cream and cake to the Hester Home residents to celebrate August birthdays. The birthday table was also decorated with colorful balloons.

Lois Zuege, granddaughter, Rikki, Lois's sister Edith Roundtree and daughter, Evelyn Stamm of Benkelman attended a Carlock family reunion that was held in
