

CARRYING THE SURVIVORS' BANNER at Friday's Relay for Life were Kip Wiese, Sandy Frisbie and Rex Murray. The other survivors followed in their walk around the park.

Relay raises money for cancer research

RELAY FOR LIFE activities were held Friday at Sawhill Park. There were games, entertainment and an auction. Top left, Dance Ranch performers were McKenna Poling, Lindsey Johnson, Stephanie Meyer, Jesslynn Houtman, Jesse Baxter and Brady Dinkel. Counterclockwise: The senior dancers performed 'I Run For You,' which touched many of the cancer survivors; John Finley helped Stephanie Workman, Dara Loyd and Tammy Grice with the luminarias; Carter Matthies showed the quilt block he had helped with (the quilt was one of the auction items donated by the Bracelin family); setting up the auction items were (l to r) Betty Loudon, Robin Petersen, Skip Petersen and Betty Petersen; and Norman Morrow gave the survivor's talk. Herald staff photos by Karen Krien