

Junior high volleyball plays

Both the junior high A-team and B-team were involved in the Hoxie Volleyball Tournament on Saturday.

"The A-team and B-team played in different places so once again we had Terri Orth coach the A team," said Coach Tina Elliott.

"This tournament is always a tough tournament with good teams and good players but I think the girls held their own and did a good job with both teams ending up with two wins and two losses, so that put us right in the middle for the day."

The A-team lost to Hoxie, defeated Oberlin, lost to Trego and defeated Norton.

A team vs Hoxie (19-25, 17-25), good serves: McKayla Taylor 7; Valerie Wurm 6; Justice Wiley 5; McKenzie Taylor 5, Ashlee Orth 3.

A team vs Oberlin (25-19, 25-13), good serves: Wiley 15, Echo Jones 8, McKenzie Taylor 8, Wurm 6; McKayla Taylor 5; Orth 1; Kayla Reed 1.

"I am proud of our accomplishments this season," Coach Elliott said.

Decatur/Oberlin vs Saint Francis

The junior high volleyball teams met Decatur Community/Oberlin in St. Francis on Thursday afternoon.

The A-team had their first match loss of the season while the B-team and C-team each recorded a match win.

"Overall I am so proud of all these girls, they still have a winning season with only one loss apiece and this will put us in a good position for our league tournament in October," Coach Tina Elliott said.

The final scores of the A-team match were 26-24, 6-25, 13-15.

"The A team had a tough night and were very disappointed we no longer have an undefeated season," Coach Elliott said. "We had a lot of missed serves and the second set we just got down on ourselves and couldn't pick things back up, we made a good effort in the third set but it just wasn't quite enough. These girls played hard but the missed serves and silly mistakes made, hurt us in the end, sometimes we just have an off night and that's okay, we will put ourselves back together and come out fighting for wins in our tournament at Hoxie."

A-team good serves: Justice Wiley 11, Echo Jones 5, Valerie Wurm 5, Kyla Bandel 5, McKayla Taylor 2, Ashlee Orth 1, Mariah Beikman 1.

The final score of the B-team win was 25-9, 13-25 and 15-13 while the C-team won 25-16, 25-20.

The B- and C-teams did well, the coach said. They worked hard together and got the win so it was a good start and finish for us for the night. These girls had good serves and their efforts paid off in the end.

B-team good serves: Kylie Sherlock 17, McKenzie Taylor 8, Journey Lee 7, Kattie Jenik 6, Kyla Reed 3, CarolEve Harris 3, Sydney Sundstrom 1.

C-team good serves: Sundstrom 9, Jenik 4, Beikman 4, Lee 4, Abby Fernandez 3, Reed 3, Hannah Stafford 2, Emily Elfers 1, McKenzie Taylor 1.

Red Hat Mamas

On Sept. 21, the Bird City/McDonald Red Hat Mamas entered Two Lee's Steakhouse surrounded by an Oriental paradise. Vernetta Haack, wearing a beautiful satin kimono and beaded geisha slippers, greeted each of member with Kone Che Wa. The theme was carried out with table decorations of lanterns and confetti. Each was gifted with chop sticks, umbrellas and napkins purchased in Japan by Vernetta.

On display was memorabilia collected by Vernetta: A Koke-shi doll purchased at the 1939 Japanese World's Fair, a Japanese bride doll, samurai doll and Mt. Fuji fans were among the items she elaborated on. She went on to say Japan has many festivals and bowing was a custom often seen, especially to their elders.

She mentioned "Hachiko," a stuffed dog, which is a symbol of Japan, who traveled with them to complete the story of the adventurous travels. The Red Hatters thanked Vernetta for this informative presentation.

A short business meeting was conducted by the group's queen, Margaret Voorhies. Plans were finalized for the rest of the year. Humorous reading chairwoman, Phyllis Wingfield had five stories to share. Linda had two surprises for the group. First was the red hat towel holder won by Betty for having the lucky sticker under her plate and then she provided after dinner candies. The afternoon was spent at the McDonald Senior Center with two full tables of domino players. Margaret awarded prizes for high and low scores at each table.

Members enjoying the lovely fall day were: Ana Antholz, Frieda Black, Bonnie Burr, Linda Carroll, Vernetta Haack, Beverly Higgins, Betty Lewis, Iris McIntosh, Carol Mears, Edna Roesener, Connie Rooney, Joan Tongish, Margaret Voorhies, LaVina Waters, Phyllis Wingfield, Marlene Young.

The October meeting will be in Atwood.

Junior high boys play

The Indian junior high football team competed with the Decatur Community/Oberlin team in St. Francis Thursday. Each team made one touchdown with the difference being that Oberlin had a successful conversion attempt following their touchdown for the 8-6 victory.

"I was pleased with our overall effort against Oberlin Thursday," Coach Jeff Beims said. "Defensively we played great."

"Oberlin has some good athletes and apparently a rather thick offensive playbook that they execute well. Our guys stood the test though, and held them to just 8 points" added Coach Beims.

"Offensively, we just can't seem to sustain a drive. Penalties got us this time. We had a couple drives going early but couldn't finish them after getting backed up. When you play 'three yards and a cloud-of-dust football' penalties can kill you," Coach Beims said.

"We have made good progress though we just need to take the next step."

Cade Bracelin scored the Indians touchdown on an 80-yard run in the third quarter.
