By Floy Fisher

Retirement Party
Betty Sargent's retirement party, planned by her husband, Larry, daughter, Jan, and niece, Ronda, as well as postal people in Benkelman and Haigler, was a big success. Betty greatly appreciated all the cards, gifts, calls, and visits also the friends she has made and the great people she has worked with during her 21-plus years of serving the communities of Stratton, McCook, Benkelman, Parks and Haigler offices of the United States Postal Service. All of these have been a big part of her enjoying her career all these years.

Visits scenes from the past
Stan and LaNeta Carlock returned Monday evening from Estes Park, Colo., where they had spent this past week. On Wednesday of that week, LaNeta hiked 12 miles on the Fern Lake trailhead. Quite a feat for a woman her age! On the way to Fern Lake, she spent some time at The Pool and the Old Forest Inn site (formerly owned by the Tecker family of Parks). LaNeta's mother and father, Opal and LaVoine Collicott; her uncle, Gerald Myer; and aunts, Evelyn and Velma, had all been a part of the Forest Inn story years ago. She last had visited the site many years ago; and has pictures of her and her parents taken in 1945 when she was 2 years old...standing beside a large boulder to the side of the trail. She found that same boulder on her hike this past week.

Exhausted and sore muscles

from the climb and long trail walk, she said "It was just something I had to do." Now, she is going to try and talk her sisters into joining her another time and retrace the climb once again.

Galena Webster and LaNeta Carlock attended the McCook Bison football game in McCook on Friday evening to watch their nephews, Mitch and Matt Collicott play varsity. The Bison team played Lexington; and the game was stopped by the referees two times for lightning in the area. The sisters returned home later that evening.

Tuesday Oct. 5, Clara Johnston came to Haigler to spend the night with Jim and Jerrie Wheaton. Jer-rie took her to a medical appointment. The twosome also managed some visiting.

Saturday, Oct. 9, Jerrie spent the day in Imperial with her sister Jo Leyland. The day was mostly spent visiting. There was a short tutorial session on eBay as well.

Randy, Laurie, Laura, Madison and Spencer Perila and MerryLu Simmons visited Laura Pearl Wall in her home Saturday afternoon. On Monday Laura Pearl drove to Yuma to visit her daughter, Carol Flaming and to see her two grandsons, Logan and Noel.

The new grain storage facility has piled up impressively with corn coming in during the past week.

Sharna Richardson of Wray

came by and picked up her mother, Floy Fisher, to ride along on a quick, delivery errand trip to St. Francis and back. Gunnar and Mo (Cocomo) Sharna's Cocker and Lab also enjoyed the ride in the Conversion Van.

Fall Tumbleweed Festival
Haigler's third annual Fall Tumbleweed Festival is coming soon...Saturday, Oct. 23. Watch for ads and fliers this week and next. Everyone is invited for a fun day of celebration. There are no admission fees...just free will donations.

Schedule of events will include neighborhood garage sales from 9 a.m.-noon mountain daylight time. Maps will be available at "the station" on Highway 34. Barbecue begins at 1 p.m. at the Country Schoolhouse Museum grounds on Porter Avenue. Homemade pies and ice cream will be served in the Golden Inn Senior Center.

Music throughout the afternoon is by LaVoine Smith and his Garage Bunch from Burlington, Colo., and is a special entertainment no one will want to miss. Treasure hunts, pinata treats, door prizes, cake walks on the carousel merry-go-round, maypole awards, and tours of the completed Country Schoolhouse Museum are other afternoon activities. Bring your decorated tumbleweeds (fall-Halloween theme) to be displayed. Prizes will be awarded.

At 3:30 p.m. the Tumbleweed/Spook Parade for kids (including adults) of all ages will begin in front of the Country School House Museum. No motorized vehicles yet this year...but walkers, bicycles, tricycles, wagons, and pull floats can be entered. Prizes will again be awarded. The tents and tables will be up. People might want to bring their own lawn chairs, too. Regardless of weather, event will be held--so plan now to attend.
