

Haigler News

The Haigler United Methodist Church members will be trick or treating for UNICEF at 5 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 31. At 6:30 the community is welcome to the church for soup and hot chocolate.

Alicia Crouse was a Sunday afternoon visitor in the home of Charlie and Myrna Mulligan. Alicia and Myrna also enjoyed some piano time together.

Charlie and Myrna Mulligan recently returned from a short get-away trip to Southern Colorado and Santa Fe, N. M. They took back roads off the Interstate to see some sights along the Highway of Legends; the old Santa Fe Trail and enjoy the changing colors of fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Stan Carlock and Marvin Carlock had coffee and rolls with Laura Pearl Wall on Wednesday morning.

Jerry and Carmen Murray visited Laura Pearl Wall on Saturday afternoon.

MerryLu Simmons visited in the Wall home on Thursday afternoon.

Sophia Zuege and Lois Zuege with granddaughter Rikki visited the Dale and Dode Faylor home on Friday.

Lois Zuege and granddaughter Rikki attended a birthday party in Wray on Saturday at the home of Mary Stevens. The birthday girl was Gabby, granddaughter of Vicky Walz.

Piles of corn in the new storage facility are becoming small mountains, thanks to the continued October bright blue weather.

Some tender plants were touched with a light frost Sunday morning, the 17th.

Tumbleweed Festival

Anticipation is growing for the Tumbleweed Festival in Haigler Saturday, the 23rd of this month. Schedule of events will include neighborhood garage sales from 9 a.m.-noon mountain daylight time. Maps will be available at "the station" on Hwy. 34. Barbecue begins at 1 p.m. at the Country Schoolhouse Museum grounds on Porter Avenue. Homemade pies and ice cream will be served in the Golden Inn Senior Center.

Music throughout the afternoon is by LaVoine Smith and his Garage Bunch from Burlington, Colo., and is a special entertainment you don't want to miss. Treasure Hunts, pinata treats, door prizes, cake walks on the carousel merry-go-round, maypole awards, and tours of the completed Country Schoolhouse Museum are other afternoon activities.

Bring your decorated tumbleweeds (fall-Halloween theme) to be displayed. Prizes will be awarded.

At 3:30 p.m. the Tumbleweed/Spook Parade for kids (including adults) of all ages will begin in front of the Country School House Museum. No motorized vehicles yet this year... but walkers, bicycles, tricycles, wagons, and pull floats can be entered. Prizes will again be awarded. The tents and tables will be up. You might want to bring your own lawn chairs, too.

Regardless of weather, event will be held--so plan now to attend. Note ad in this issue.
