

WHEN A FIRE forced the exit of all residents from the Good Samaritan Village, the St. Francis Community High School sent its bus and opened its gym to the misplaced people. Emergency personnel and many volunteers move the elderly to the school to have care of them.

Community comes to the aid of our elderly

BRINGING COMFORT in an emergency. Top left, High school girls Jandy Dunn, Hayley Brown and Chauntell Peter keep a resident tucked in. Emergency personnel move oxygen tanks from the burning building. Erika Zimbelman and Rod Young were two of the volunteers helping out. Don Gamblin (left) delivers supplies to the high school. Helping him unload were Matt Tygart (center) and Nathan Lamb. Jodie Hilt offers Willard Zwegardt a juice after he arrived at the school.

Herald staff photos by Casey McCormick